(2) The papers that would answer the description given in (2) are

(a) E.M.C. 813.8.1852 no. 270 apparently in Marathi and there is translation of only one.

No other papers on this subject are traceable in the Secretariat records

(3) The only papers traceable as regards (3) are :-

1(e) so far as the endorsement to the Govt. Agent is concerned though India's letter referred under that endorsement is confidential - 1(f), 1(g) and 1(h) are confidential, it is submitted. There seems to be no objection to giving attested copies of India's letter 827.2.94, no. 307.5 and of go. dated 12.3.94, no. 165. It is submitted that the production of 1(b), 1(g) and 1(h) and the letter referred under 1(e) should be withheld under section 123 of the Indian Evidence Act

There appears to be no objection to producing attested copies of 2(a)
