C.S. X

CURRENT NO. 360 Madras.

11th March 1895.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council Fort St. George.

CHIEF SECRETARY
13. MAR. 1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

The humble memorial of Lathya Bi. widow of the late Sultan Mahomed Khan Bahadur Nadiyang.

Most Respectfully Sheweth.

The Memorialist humbly entreats to beseech your Excellency's benign consideration to address her grievances herein submitted.

2. Memorialist was, from her infancy, brought up by Goolam Jelani Khan, and was given in Nikka Marriage to his son the said Nadiyang, and then, she was a dependent on the former, for maintenance, who was in receipt of a monthly pension of Rs 25. The whole of this pension, though returnable out, lapses to Government, no credit being given to the several petitions submitted by the Memorialist for its continuance; thus it was left in a state of...

3. Memorialist's husband the said Nadimgang, ^{on} the demise of Sharfulomra, on whom he was a dependent (the former being a sister's son of the latter), was allotted a pension of Rs 35, while others of his stage, i.e. having similar relationships, have been fairly dealt with, for instance, Abdulghani Khan was given Rs 50.

4. On the death of Memorialist's said husband, $\frac{2}{3}$ of his stipend was allowed to continue, (while in similar cases full pensions have been continued on, vide Shaji-ul-Mulk's Case), of which Memorialist was allotted Rs 4, her daughter Rs 4, her son Rs 5;

5. Finding no other alternative than to commute her Rs 4 to meet the expenses of the marriage of her, and her son's daughter Memorialist accordingly did that. Meanwhile, her son became a perfect insane, thus all her hopes of being protected by him have been baffled, and on the result, she is made to look after him in dotage. Your Lordship can understand how ^{will} Memorialist of on with her son's Rs 5 which are barely insufficient to maintain even one soul!

6. Several Appeals having been made to the Paymaster on the subject, he was to allow monthly the Memorialist, Rs 2 from the Gosha Madow in aid Charitable Fund. To receive this gratuity, she is made to present for ever still the sum of Rs 2 together with her son's Rs 5 is insufficient for maintenance - she therefore begs your Excellency to relieve her from such repulsive & also from degrading condition.

7. That $\frac{2}{3}$ of the stipend, on the demise of the above said Sharfulomra, who was in monthly receipt of Rs 2,000 was allowed to the members of his family.
The distribution was made by Colonel Jynell, the then Government Agent, on the list, submitted by Shajiulmulke, in which he, by mistake, showed the name of his own brother's Nika wife as Heir of his father (Sharfulomra); and Rs 7 have been allotted to this name. This mistake was not discovered till after, the supposed recipient refused to receive, in an illicit way, the allotment proposed by that Officer. Then after, this sum of Rs 7 was, without any sufficient reason, and against many discrepancies of the distribution scale, which, up to date, give

3. ~~Capra~~ to Government - Properly speaking, it should have been distributed among all the members of Sharfulomra's family, but this was not done, as it appeared to fetch only a very insignificant fraction to each of them; nor, it was, at the time, presumed that Officer, that should this sum of Rs 7 be added to the stipend of Esher Delair Jang, who was granted ~~Rs 10~~ less than that of his own brother Shajikulmulk or to that of Madam Jang Memorialist's husband, who was given Rs 15 less than that of his Cousin Abdulghani Khan (members of the same family) it will hold good.

8. Memorialist, being a member of that family, being reduced to a critical state deserving of mercy, claim that position which unreasonably lapsed to Govt. Granting of such concession will command entire consent of the family.

9. Your Lordship will be pleased to grant a ~~the~~ ~~Compassionate~~ allowance either from lapsed pension of Rs 25 mentioned in para 2 above, or to allow to continue on, the lapsed sum of Rs 7 described in para 7.

10. For which act of charity your Memo-rialist shall in duty bound ever pray
