approved -

The heirs in this case are living at Hyderabad, and as soon as they are paid off, we shall no longer be concerned with them.

But I should like to ask Col. Stewart to tell Govt. exactly what his opinion is as to our policy of commuting small pensions payable to females.

I believe in most cases their male relatives get hold of and squander these bonuses, and that great hardships are suffered by the poor women.

My own idea is that these poor females should in no cases have their pensions commuted, unless they fall below say 2 Rs. a month - but I should like to hear what Col. Stewart has to say in the matter. I think we should also invite Mr. Firth to give her opinion - as she knows far more of the inner lives of these poor creatures than any other European.
