No. _____

Sir,

I am directed to transmit to you the enclosed petition from Bangaru Subbammal, and I am to inquire if, in the opinion of your Government, the request made in the concluding portion of the petition should be granted.

2. The motive for the application would appear to be, to put the petitioners' grandsons on the same footing as certain other Kandyan pensioners' sons, rather than seriously to assist the boys' studies.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Reverend

for Colonial Secretary.

The Chief Secretary to Government

CURRENT No. 603

21st April 1895

Despatched 2nd May 1895

From,

J. Thomson Esquire

Government Agent,

Tanjore

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Political Department,
Madras

Sir,

With reference to Government memorandum
No. 178, dated 31st January 1895, I have the honor to report that the youngest of the ^{two boys} ~~two~~ on whose behalf application is made by Bungarsubbamma for the appointment of a private tutor is very promising and that is the boy to whom the first prize of Rs 20 was awarded in Government Order No. $\frac{423}{19.6.94}$. The appointment of a private tutor will be beneficial to him and

and also to his elder brother who is somewhat backward in his studies.

2. I enclose a list of the school going Kandian youths. The total number of those properly called boys in Sanjore including the grand children of Bangarubamma is 7. There are 6 more, 20 years of age and upwards who profess to be reading. The allowance for private tuition will be claimed for all of them; already an application is lodged on behalf of Darasami Raja's son.

3. I may be able to arrange for one tutor to take up the boys in the Fort, and another for those in Manambuchavadi

4. The recent orders of the Government of Ceylon will cover such expenditure

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant

Shulindan
