To,
His Excellency
The Governor in Council

CHIEF SECRETARY
18 APR. 1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

The most humble petition of Abdul Wahab, Son of Nawab Rashid-ud-doulat Bahadur And grandson of Nawab Asafud-doulat Bahadur, the first titular Nawab of Carn-nate, residing on Lee Home Road, Munsabpettah, Loyapettah, Madras

Most Humbly Sheweth,
That your Excellency's humble petitioner some 15 days ago went to the Office of the Paymaster of Car-nate Shpendo to register the names of your Excellency's petitioner's heirs, when the Paymaster said that the name of your Excellency's petitioner's wife cannot then be registered for there was a Notification issued before that the names of the wives of the Carnate pensioners should be registered before the 1st September 1885.

To this, Your Excellency's petitioner says that he was not at all aware of any such notification as above mentioned. That this notification was issued with the object that no frauds might take place among the petty pensioners. Such frauds cannot be expected from persons of rank like Your Excellency's petitioner who is the grandson of the first titular Nawab of Carnatic and who is drawing a monthly stipend of Rs 400 13 from the Paymaster's office. It is because Your Excellency's petitioner is considered to be a person of rank that he is exempted from personally appearing before the Paymaster to show that he is alive.

That Your Excellency's petitioner's nika wife Daulat-un-nissa whose name the Paymaster showed doubts in registering is the mother of the following 5 children of mine; namely (1) Muhammad Asadud-din aged 12 years (2) Muhammad Abdul Majid aged 11 years (3) Muhammad Abdul Ruzzaq aged 2 years (4) Muhammadi Begum aged 7 years and (5) Ahmadi Begum aged 5 years.

Whereas the mothers of these two sons of Your Excellency's petitioner namely 1 Gulam & Muhammad Moain aged 19 years and 2 Muhammad Dawood Moain aged 17 years are dead, so that Your Excellency's most humble petitioner has in all 8 heirs including Your Excellency's petitioner's nika wife Daulat un-nissa.

In the end Your Excellency's most humble petitioner most humbly begs Your Excellency to be gracious enough to order the Paymaster of the Car-natic Stipends to register the name of Your Excellency's petitioner's nika wife Daulat-un-nissa with the names of Your Excellency's petitioner's other 7 heirs, which have been already mentioned, so that Your Excellency's petitioner's nika wife Daulat-un-nissa may not be deprived from a share in Your Excellency's petitioner's stipend of Rs 400 13.

For which Act of kindness benevolence and charity Your Excellency's most humble petitioner and his family shall as in duty bound ever pray.

Sir

I have the honor in compliance with your endorsement No. 875 of the 22nd ultimo to report that it appears to me that the petitioner Muhammad Abd-ulwahhab Sahib is not required to register the name of his wife in this office, as in my opinion G.O. No. 359 dated 22nd May 1885 "Political" only applies to cases when Compassionate allowances are returned in the appendices E. & F. to the above G.O. as "moiety to widow."

2. I have the honor to state that when the petitioner applied to me for permission orally to register his wife's name the distinction above pointed out was not clear to me, so I declined to accede to his request, on the authority of the G.O. referring to the registration of wives before a certain date, but it seems to me ^{now} desirable to accept the registration of these wives of Carnatic Stipendiaries whose stipends are returned "continuable."

Why - this registry work has been done once for all. Why start it & recommence again?!!

I have the honor to be
Sir

your most obedient servant.

as regards the registry of wives names, which concerns those stipendiaries only whose widows are to receive compassionate allowance, does not apply to his case.
