293 x The Earl of Bessborough is here on a private visit. The question has been raised whether the Lieut. Genl commanding the Forces should call upon him first or vice versa. We have no precedent here to guide us. Kindly advise us to what should be done.

See addendum
No. 2 at page 217 of Proceedings and precedents. Baroda is a much bigger chief than those there named.
I don't know what the procedure as regards visits by Comm^{rs} and Chief have been. He never thought of ascertaining when he made the book up. I can easily ascertain by writing to foreign -

I am inclined to think that it is ^{on} ~~by~~ the Governor ^{the Govt.} or Comm^r of the province alone that chiefs of the position of Navarone Baroda to have to call first.

I do not know of any rules such as the Govt. alludes to: perhaps he was thinking of the enclosed.

Yours sincerely,
 H. Mitchell

My dear Sir

H.E. The Govt. is much obliged. He thinks on the whole it would be as well, if you w^d write to Foreign, as to have the Lt. Gen. Com^r of India. Should visit a Potentate of the Garkwari position when privately visiting the Pres
