May it please your Excellency

That Pet. most humbly begs to approach your Excellency with the following quesnans

That P^{tr} had been serving the Barranpore Post for over 41 years during the greater part of which he was. Chief Inspector of Police in the range on a salary of Rs 25 and an allowance of Rs 15 per mensem

That he had been giving thorough satisfaction in all the works entrusted to him through out his long official career

That, owing to no fault whatever on his part, but merely on the strength of a malicious petition against him he was thrown out of office on a gratuity of a years pay

Shingara Pillay

That Pet. having prayed

Travancore Govt to inform him why he was so abruptly ousted out and why he was not eligible for pension while others who were drawing less salary and had less service were granted pension just before and after Pet's removal from office and gratuity he was not favoured with a reply. Having appealed to H. H. The Maha Raja The British Resident and the Madras Govt one after another he was met with more or less the same result

6 JUN. 1895

Pet. therefore most humbly begs to bring the matter to your Excellency's charitable and benign consideration and craves your Excellency to be pleased to ask of the Travancore Govt why poor Pet. was not found qualified for pension which those noted on the margin were given pension & thereby get his grievance redressed

For which act of charity & kindness Pet. shall as in duty bound ever pray
