Sir,

I am directed to forward copies with two Gpts & 4 certificates of the marginally-noted proceedings of this Govt. in regard to the family of a deceased Ghulam Ghaus, Kurnool political pensioner and to request that, if you consider that the enclosed ~~medical~~ health & age certificates may be accepted, you will be so good as to arrange for the payment of the bonuses specified against their names in the Accl. Genl's No. J.A.D./81 of the 18th instant as well as of arrears of pension calculated at the rates ~~specified~~ given in column 3 of the Accd. Genl's statement from the 24th July 1894 up to the end of the month preceding that on which the bonuses are disbursed. H.E. the Governor in Council would be obliged if you would also arrange for the investment of the bonus and arrears of pension payable to Husaini Ali Khan, calculated on the same method, ~~as obtains for the other members of the family~~, until he comes of age.

There are in this instance two cases of female Pensioners. Should the rule recently ordered with regard to Carnatic Stipendiaries be applied to them?

H.S.
26/6/95

When I wrote the above I had not seen H.E's note on the draft order attached to above. As it is apparently intended that this order shall apply to Carnatic Stipendiaries alone I have now withdrawn the Office draft
