TANJORE GOSIA PENSIONERS AND THEIR VAKILS

Informing the Government Agent, Tanjore, that the appointments, by certain gosia pensioners of the Tanjore Palace, of Vakils, for drawing their pensions need not be interfered with, and that, in future, the sanction of Government should be obtained for the appointment of Vakils who are neither the near relatives of the pensioners nor persons of respectability in receipt of pensions of Rs. 10 or upwards.

Sir,

Madras

In Government order No. 272, Political, dated 5th December 1866 the Government has ordered that none but relatives or pensioners of respectability in receipt of pensions of Rs 10 or upwards should be recognized as Agents of gosha pensioners for the purpose of drawing their pensions. This rule, however, has not been

Strictly

28 strictly adhered to and has been deviated from, in special cases on the representations of the ladies concerned. A list of such cases is enclosed for the information of Government.

2. Nos 15 to 18 in the list have now requested me to recognize their own men as their agents. One of these (Kagoji Krishna) applied for by Nos 15, 16 and 17 is already the agent of Nos 10 to 12 in the list and the other Rameshchandra Venkaji is the son of a former agent of a deceased Rani.

3. The rule appears to have been passed the principle that the Vakils should be persons who draw stipends from Government and who have a direct personal interest in the the stipends they receive". In this view it seems to me to be doubtful if the Vakils now chosen can be recognized.

4. The Government, however, has sanctioned a deviation from the rule in one case. Vide Govt -ment order No 246 dated 28th April 1893. a.
I beg to be favoured with the definite orders of Government if such Vakils are to be recognized in future.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

With reference to Government Memorandum No. 1164 dated 30th May 1895, I have the honor to report that there are no objections other than the prohibition in G.O. No. 272 dated 5th December 1866 to the employment of the Vakils mentioned in the list submitted with my letter No. 67 dated 16th May 1895.

2. I submit herewith a list of persons fulfilling fulfilling one of the Conditions, viz that their monthly pensions should be Rs 10 or upwards, prescribed in the above G.O. These persons can take the places of the Vakils in the list, if the Gosha pensioners care to employ them.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. No. 675, 888

FOR ORDERS.

In G.O. of 5th December 1866, No. 272, the Govt. approved of the proposal of the Govt. Agent, Tanjore, that all Gosha women in the Tanjore Palace should be called upon to nominate either their own near relatives, or persons of respectability in ~~the~~ receipt of pensions of Rs 10 ~~or~~ upwards as their Vakils for drawing their allowances.

It now appears that this rule has not been strictly adhered to in the past & the Govt. Agent, with the first of the above currents, forwards a list of Vakils who do not fulfil the conditions laid down in 1866.

The rule was originally instituted as a preventive against

Tanyas Gacha Pensioners & their Vakkis.

audat in regard to the conduct the Gacha Tanyas pensioners.

If it is to be enforced in the cases brought to light by the Int. Agent, there will probably be an outcry from the pensioners.
No harm appears, to have arisen from the deviations from the rule. In fact, the rule itself appears to be of doubtful utility.

These pensioners will not be moral simply because Govt.
must recognise their favouritism as their Vakkis nor is the prohibition likely to stop the tongue of scandal if there is cause for scandal.

Yes - it seems to be so.

I would allow any deviations from the Rule on the recommendation of the Pol. Agent - who will of course satisfy himself as to the respectability of his nominees.

The rule seems to me a good one - But there is no objection to allowing deviations from it in particular cases on the recommendation of the Agent.
