SUBJECT.

Requesting that his pension may be commuted or that it may be continued to his heirs after his demise.

WITH ORDER

The Petr re-iterates his prayer for commutation of his pension and says that the grounds on which Govt has declined to comply with his request, contrary to the general rule that stipends of less than Rs 20 value should be Commuted have not been stated in the enclosed endorsement furnished to him by the Collector. Petr fears that the endt is based on the one-sided report of the gumastah who was disappointed in not receiving the bribe of Rs 50/ which he demanded from the Petr. No Enquiry of any kind as to the Character of the Petr was ever held by the Collector. If there are any persons who can speak to that character they must be Petr's own relations, but they were not at all called on to speak. That Shamsud-din's wife, Nahmi Bi, should have been referred to Civil Courts with reference to her petition in re her husband's pension was proper enough; but why Petr's wife should have been constantly referred to for information with reference to a similar petition it is difficult to understand. Petr's object in getting his stipend commuted is to make provision for himself & family by investing the Commuted capital in the purchase of landed property, and he therefore prays that his Stipend maybe ordered to be Commuted in accordance with the general rule or that his pension maybe continued to his heirs after his demise.

Petr has had this petition attested by ~~two~~ three witnesses in corroboration of his charge of bribery against the Tahsildar
