His excellency the Right Honorable
The Government of Madras
in Council

The humble memorial of Padamant Sahib N. Parasharam Sahib nephews of the Late M. Rasanantham Sahib
7th Sahib

Humbly Sheweth

That your excellency's memorialists were dependants of H. H. the late Mr.
Rasanantham Sahib. She was supporting them by means of allowance & present.

2

That at the time of H. H. death she prepared a list of her dependants forward it to the Government. with a request that they may be granted pensions

3

That a monthly pensions of Rs 7 each of the memorialists was entered in H. H. list & they were expecting to receive the pensions assigned to them in the contrary the pensions of others have been sanctioned while memorialists are informed that no.

4 Since H. H's death the memorialists are put to grant in Commence & suffer for their schooling charges of the two memorialists the eldest has passed the Lower secondary in the first class & the second is studying for that examination. H. H's death your memorialists fear will put a stop to their further advancement in education.

5 Under these circumstances your excellency memorialists presented a memorial to your excellency requesting to grant a monthly of Rs 7 to each as was done in the case of other relations of H. H.

6 To this memorial we received a reply to the effect that we have no claim on the decedent's family pension.

7 We now request your excellency will be pleased to favour us with an order which we were considered as not entitled to the above pension.

For which act of charity the memorialists shall as in duty bound ever Pray.
