An humble petition of (1) Shangoo

And (10) Kandori residing in Moolavarackal Travarti

Most respected Sir,
It is now many years that we are living on the selling of fish caught by putting fishing stakes in the Cochin harbour. These stakes had never been the cause of danger or prevention for any of the boat men going through that river till this day. But now the present Resident gave an order to remove all the stakes and most of them are removed. As we are ignorant of any other works and find no other means for our livelihood, so, if these stakes were to be removed, it will only be a cause of great sorrow and ruin to our family. So we earnestly beg your honour to give a kind order to replace these stakes and save us from this unsufferable sorrow.

We beg to remain, Sir,
Yours most obediently
Ayama
