An humble petition of (1) Cochayan
(2) Cocheran

Most respected Sir,

It is more than 300 years that we spend our livelihood by putting fishing stakes in the Cochin harbour. Now these stakes are removed by the order of the present Resident. Those stakes are so placed by us, that they have never prevented any of the boats, going through that river, or, been the cause of danger for any boat-men until this date. As we live by the selling of fish, caught by putting these stakes, and do not know to do any other works, and also no other things for our livelihood, so we and our family are heartly Sorry, for, we do not find any other means for our livelihood. Before also, once these stakes were ordered and removed. Then as we fell in great sorrow, we had send a petition and got permission to replace them. According to that we put the stakes. Now, as we were living thus a new order was again given ~~them~~ to remove them which is an unsufferable sorrow for us

So we earnestly beg your honour to give a kind order to replace those stakes and save us from this unsufferable sorrow

We beg to remain, Sir,
Yours most obediently

(2) Cacheran.
