Note for the SA.

I beg to submit that there are no papers (in Press, Mis Amt Series) in 1888 to show that a Congratulatory letter was sent to the late Raja of Cochin on his accession to the Musnad.

Please see the accompanying papers. a letter was sent in the case of Indu Keta.

I told Reference some time ago to look up & see whether any congratulatory letter was sent to the late Raja (H.S. the for) on his accession. This must be reported in very short

May I have reminder Ref who are looking up the list

 I made the enquiry with reference to the coming Cochin Installation Perhaps the following telegram might go to Resident in cypher:-
 "Can you ^{ascertain quickly} state custom as to congratulatory letter from Governor Raja Cochin on installation. No such letter appears to have been sent in 1888. Wire reply."

I am not able to say whether H.E. sends congratulatory letter to the Raja of Cochin on occasion of installation as such a communication would probably issue from the Secretariat. At all events I cannot trace in this office any precedent for either Cochin or Travancore.
