To

The British Resident
in Travancore and Cochin

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that the present Lunatic Asylum being in the centre of the Town and on the side of a much frequented road, it is proposed to construct a new block of buildings for the purpose on a suitable site a little removed from the Town. His Highness' Government are anxious that the new buildings should be of the latest and most approved design adopted in British India. I shall therefore feel obliged by your kindly obtaining and sending me at your early convenience plans of one or two of the best and most recently built asylums.

I have &c
