Has any scale been passed on the point?

Note for the S.A.

1. There appears to be no definite order fixing the scale of Tomb allowances to Kandyam Pensioners. But in the year 1831 the Paymaster at Vellore reports, on a petition from the Ex-King of Kandy & several other members of his family praying for an assignment of land for the purpose of having a tomb erected over his remains after his death, that a sum of Rs 500 was granted for in the Case of the Ex-King & Rs 150 in the Case of his mother (vide ^{his} letter of 20th Jan^y 1831). He further states that the probable cost of erecting such tomb would be from 100 to 150 Rs. - The Gov^t of Ceylon to whom this Correspondence was transmitted, ^{expressed} ~~expressed~~ ^{to be} opinion that the amount ^{proposed to be} set apart for this purpose is considerable yet requested this Gov^t to authorize the Paymaster to incur such charges as it may be absolutely necessary in point of expediency to allow - (vide portion marked with white tape in vol. E. Pol. Consultations - 1832).

2. In the year 1845 the Paymaster at Vellore reports that no tomb is built over the remains of a daughter of the Ex. King of Kandy & requests instructions for having one erected at an expense of 100 Rs - & he makes this request with additance to Col Stewart's letter of 20th Jan^y 1831 & 4th July 1832 (vide E. M. C. of 13th July 1832, n^o. 6) recommending that from 100 to 150 Rs be allowed for a tomb over the remains of the different members of the Kandyan family; & this request is acceded to by the Ceylon Gov^t. (vide E. M. C. 179 & 19th May 1845) - In the year 1860 when a similar request for the grant of a tomb allowance to the youngest daughter of the Ex. King of Kandy is made, it is called "the usual allowance".

and this Gov^t sanctions the ~~usual~~ grant of 100 Rs & 80 & 26th Nov^r 1860 n^o. 692). There are Cases of departure from this general rule & 80th + 71 & 30th Aug^r 1878 may be quoted as an instance in which a sum of Rs 200 is sanctioned as tomb allowances to Kirthisimmala Raja (3). In this Connection I beg to state that there is a distinct ruling ~~that~~ to the effect that tomb allowances will be granted only if applied for within a year of the decease of the person over whose remains the tomb is to be erected (80th + 71 & 30th Aug^r 1878).
