His Excellency will hold a levée, receive addresses, visit hospitals, colleges and other public institutions, and exchange visits with the Native Chiefs present at Madras.

His Excellency will leave Madras by R.I.M.S. Warren Hastings at 10 A.M. on Tuesday, the 10th December. His Excellency's departure from Madras will be public. A Viceregal salute will be fired as His Excellency leaves Government House. A guard-of-honour, with band and colour, will be drawn up at Government House and also at the wharf, and cavalry escorts will be told off to escort His Excellency's carriage to the wharf. His Excellency the Governor of Madras and staff, the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras, with staff, and all principal Civil and Military officers of the station and other gentlemen desirous of attending will take leave of His Excellency the Viceroy at the wharf.

About noon on Friday, the 13th December, His Excellency will arrive at Calcutta. His Excellency's arrival at Calcutta will be private.

* * * * *

His Excellency will be escorted from Prinsep's Ghât to Government House by a detachment of the Body Guard. The route taken will be by the Strand Road and Esplanade Row into Government House by the north-west entrance.

II.

* * * * *

Hyderabad	13th November,	9-45 P.M.
Bangalore	19th ,,	9-45 P.M.
Trichinopoly	2nd December,	9-45 P.M.
Madras	7th ,,	9-45 P.M.

III.

When travelling by rail His Excellency will be met at all intermediate stations where halts of one hour and upwards are made by one Civil and (if a military station) by one Military officer only, who will report themselves to the Military Secretary. At minor halting places no officer need attend.

Full dress uniform will be worn. Gentlemen not entitled to wear uniform will appear in Morning dress.

Local authorities will place themselves in communication with the Railway officers, and learn through them the time of arrival of the Viceregal Train.

The usual Police arrangements will be made by the Local authorities along His Excellency's line of route, as well as at all the places of halt.

IV.

The following arrangements will be made by the Military authorities :—

Viceregal salutes will be fired at all terminal stations (i.e., where the Viceroy enters or leaves the Special Train), where Artillery is quartered, on His Excellency's arrival and departure.

The Artillery must be placed at some distance, so as to avoid causing confusion amongst the carriages, etc., in the cortege when the salute is fired.

Guards-of-honour, with band and colour, will also be in attendance at the railway stations on these occasions, unless the visit is specially notified as private and informal, and cavalry detachments told off to escort His Excellency's carriage.

Whenever Volunteers are in sufficient number to furnish guards-of-honour, they should be detailed for this duty, as well as Regulars.

An officer's guard of British troops, whenever available, will be mounted on the house or tent where His Excellency takes up his quarters, the Officer Commanding being instructed to report himself to the Military Secretary. If British troops are not available, the guard will be furnished by Native troops under the command of a British officer.

Cavalry escorts, and Cavalry and Infantry orderlies, and a Native guard of sufficient strength to furnish two double sentries, one for the Military Secretary's Office Treasury, and the other for the Private Secretary's Office Treasury and also sentries to guard the camp, if His Excellency the Viceroy and staff are in tents, will be detailed and ordered to report themselves at the Military Secretary's Office at His Excellency's residence.

By Command,

R. E. GRIMSTON, Captain,
Offg. Military Secretary to the Viceroy.

The Agent to the Governor General in Central India, the Resident at Gwalior, and all officers in Government employ at Gwalior will be present on the platform.

His Excellency the Viceroy will drive to the Guest House, which will be the Viceregal residence during His Excellency's stay at Gwalior.

His Excellency will review the Imperial Service Troops, exchange visits with the Maharaja Sindhia, receive visits from the Sirdars of the Gwalior State and hold a Darbar to invest His Highness the Maharaja Sindhia with the Order of G. C. S. I. and Bapu Sahib Krishna Rao Jadu with the K. C. I. E.

His Excellency will leave Gwalior by Special Train at 10 P.M. on Sunday, the 3rd November. His Excellency's departure will be private.

At 4 P.M. on Wednesday, the 4th December, His Excellency will arrive at Madura and remain there six hours. His Excellency's arrival at Madura will be public. The Collector of Madura and other principal Government officials of the station and other gentlemen desirous of attending will be present at the railway station to receive His Excellency. His Excellency will receive an address of welcome from the Madura Municipal Council.

His Excellency will leave Madura by Special Train at 10 P.M. on the 4th December. His Excellency's departure will be private.

At 7 A.M. on Thursday, the 5th December, His Excellency will arrive at Tanjore and remain there three hours. His Excellency's arrival at Tanjore will be public. The Collector of Tanjore and other principal Government officials and other gentlemen desirous of attending will be present on the platform to receive His Excellency. His Excellency will receive an address of welcome.

At 10 A.M. on the 5th December His Excellency will leave Tanjore. His Excellency's departure from Tanjore will be private.

At 7-20 P.M. on Thursday, the 5th December, His Excellency will arrive at Madras. His Excellency's arrival at Madras will be private.

His Excellency will reside at Government House during his stay at Madras.

A

His Excellency will leave Madras by R. I. M. S. Warren Hastings at 10 A.M. on Tuesday, the 10th December. His Excellency's departure from Madras will be public. A Viceregal salute will be fired as His Excellency leaves Government House. A guard-of-honour, with band and colour, will be drawn up at Government House and also at the wharf, and cavalry escorts will be told off to escort His Excellency's carriage to the wharf. His Excellency the Governor of Madras and staff, the Lieutenant-General Commanding the Forces, Madras, with staff, and all principal Civil and Military officers of the station and other gentlemen desirous of attending will take leave of His Excellency the Viceroy at the wharf.

About noon on Friday, the 13th December, His Excellency will arrive at Calcutta. His Excellency's arrival at Calcutta will be private, and there will therefore be no guard-of-honour. The Commissioner of Police for the Town of Calcutta and the Chairman of the Commissioners of Calcutta will meet His Excellency at Prinsep's Ghat, where His Excellency will land. No other Government official is required to attend either at Prinsep's Ghat or at Government House. A Viceregal salute will be fired from the ramparts of Fort William as His Excellency lands at Prinsep's Ghat.

His Excellency will be escorted from Prinsep's Ghat to Government House by a detachment of the Body-guard. The route taken will be by the Strand Road and Esplanade Row into Government House by the north-west entrance.

II.

Trichinopoly	2nd December,	9-45 P.M.
Madras	7th „	9-45 P.M.

III.

When travelling by rail His Excellency will be met at all intermediate stations where halts of one hour and upwards are made by one Civil and (if a military station) by one Military officer only, who will report themselves to the Military Secretary. At minor halting places no officer need attend.

Full Dress uniform will be worn. Gentlemen not entitled to wear uniform will appear in Morning Dress.

Local authorities will place themselves in communication with the Railway officers, and learn through them the time of arrival of the Viceregal Train.

The usual Police arrangements will be made by the Local authorities along His Excellency's line of route, as well as at all the places of halt.

IV.

The following arrangements will be made by the Military authorities :—

Viceregal salutes will be fired at all terminal stations (i.e., where the Viceroy enters or leaves the Special Train), where Artillery is quartered, on His Excellency's arrival and departure.

The Artillery must be placed at some distance, so as to avoid causing confusion amongst the carriages, etc., in the cortege when the salute is fired.

Guards-of-honour, with band and colour, will also be in attendance at the railway stations on these occasions, unless the visit is specially notified as private and informal, and cavalry detachments told off to escort His Excellency's carriage.

Whenever Volunteers are in sufficient number to furnish guards-of-honour, they should be detailed for this duty, as well as Regulars.

An officer's guard of British troops, whenever available, will be mounted on the house or tent where His Excellency takes up his quarters, the Officer Commanding being instructed to report himself to the Military Secretary. If British troops are not available, the guard will be furnished by Native troops under the command of a British officer.

Cavalry escorts, and Cavalry and Infantry orderlies, and a Native guard of sufficient strength to furnish two double sentries, one for the Military Secretary's Office Treasury, and the other for the Private Secretary's Office Treasury and also sentries to guard the camp, if His Excellency the Viceroy and staff are in tents, will be detailed and ordered to report themselves at the Military Secretary's Office at His Excellency's residence.

By Command,

R. E. GRIMSTON, Captain,
Offg. Military Secretary to the Viceroy.
