CALCUTTA.

The humble memorial of NARAYANA PILLAY,
Ex-Tahsildar-Magistrate, Meenachel,
Taluq, Northern Travancore.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH,

That the Memorialist was unjustly deprived of his appointment by the Dewan of Travancore.

That consequently, petitioner presented petitions to the British Resident of Cochin and Travancore in August 1894, for which he received an endorsement that he should apply to the Dewan for re-consideration. The Memorialist accordingly, applied repeatedly to the Dewan as many as nine times, with the result that such entreaties have been totally unheeded, and not even so much as replied to.

That subsequently, petitioner presented a Memorial to the Madras Government (copy of which is herewith submitted) summing up the injustice shown to poor Memorialist, for which he received a reply that the Madras Government could not interfere.

That petitioner does not understand how the subjects of Protected States can expect their grievances to be redressed, when injustice is shown them, if the Paramount Power do not interfere.

That petitioner begs to draw Your Excellency's attention to the following persons: Moothaya Pillay (Inspector of Police) Aroomoogham Pillay (Sanjayom Sumpretty,) and Narayana Pillay (Kantoo Krishi-Tahsildar of Ambalapalay) who were restored to their substantive appointments in Travancore, at the instance of the British Government.

That the memorial to the Madras Government will show that as regards petitioner, the absence of adequate grounds to deprive him of his appointment has driven the Travancore Government to bring forward his thirty-two (32) years' service as the reason to shove him into the pension-list, and thus place poor petitioner on the horns of an inextricable dilemma. It will, of course, be too transparent that though, when taken singly, either the charge in question if only true or provable, or the 32 years' service may be adduced in justification of petr's removal from appointment, yet the fact that these 2 grounds are coupled, destroys each the force of the other, leaving a clear inference that the Govt. had at heart the ruin of petitioner which they were bent on carrying out at any cost.

That for these reasons, the petitioner most humbly requests Your Excellency will be pleased to make an enquiry into the matter and thus redress his grievances which are real, thereby doing him that Justice which has been denied him by the Travancore Government, the Political Agent and the Madras Government.

ALLEPPEY,
14th October 1895.

For which act of Grace
Petitioner shall as in duty bound
Ever Pray.
