His Excellency the Governor of Madras
The humble petitioner Kandi Narayan Samiy Kaidu son of Pererenga Nachiar pensioner of the Ceylon Royal family now residing in No. 1030 Panican Lane opposite to Vairamkinaru Chinnakadai street Quindign Road Madras.

May it please your Excellency

Your humble petitioner begs with submission to state, that, his mother Pererenga Nachiar, on account of her being a member of the Ceylon Royal family Ceylon Government was drawing a family Kandi pension of half a measure of rice and 8 pice daily and with this she was supporting herself and the petitioners.

2. Consequent to an illness in her old age she (Pererenga Nachiar) ~~was~~ breathed her last.

3. From that since your humble petitioner was frequently applying to the Government of Madras to recommend to the Ceylon Government to transfer the aforesaid pension of his mother (Pererenga Nachiar) to your humble petitioner's name as she was drawing her pension here.

4. In reply to the above your humble petitioner was not favored with any reply hitherto, though even two petitions of your humble petitioner submitted to the Ceylon Government together with the endorsement of the Ceylon Govt. has been submitted to the Government of Madras in 1876, from Palancotta where your humble petitioner was then living.

Your humble petitioner is too old, much feeble to do any work and suffers much as one of the Royal family for his maintenance.

No Petition from the Petitioner to the Ceylon Govt. has been submitted to the Ceylon Govt.
in 1876, from Palancotta where your humble petitioner was then living.
Induced by 4.0.1977/5 2425.

Respectfully submitted to the Ceylon Government by Kandi Narayan Samiy Kaidu

May your Excellency in your administration as Governor in conjunction with several good done to the public, be so gracious as to protect your humble petitioner by kindly getting him his mother's pension from the Government and thus relieve your humble petitioner distress and privations at his old age and excuse the trouble given hereby.

For which act of charity and beneficence your humble petitioner and his distressed royal family shall as in duty bound ever pray for your Excellency long life and prosperity and prosperity your humble petitioner begs to remain your Excellency's most obedient and faithful servant
