READ—the following :—

Programme of the Reception of His Highness the Raja of Pudukkottai by His Excellency the Viceroy, at Madras.

On Friday, the 6th December 1895, His Excellency the Viceroy will receive a visit from His Highness the Raja of Pudukkottai at Government House.

The Raja will be accompanied by the Political Officer on duty with His Highness.

On alighting from his carriage His Highness will be met by two Aides-de-Camp to His Excellency, who will lead him up the stairs. His Highness will be received at the top of the stairs by the Under Secretary in the Foreign Department,* and at the entrance to the reception room by the Foreign Secretary, who will conduct him to His Excellency's presence.

The Viceroy will receive His Highness standing, and show him to a seat at his right hand.

On the right of the Raja will be seated the Political Officer and, beyond him, according to their rank, those of His Highness's attendants, not exceeding seven in number, who are entitled to a seat in Darbar.

On the left of the Viceroy will be seated the Foreign Secretary, the Private and Military Secretaries to the Viceroy, the Under Secretary, and His Excellency's Personal Staff.

After taking his seat the Raja will rise and present a nazar of 75 gold mohars, which will be touched and remitted.

After a short conversation, the Raja's attendants will be introduced by the Political Officer, and will offer nazars of one gold mohar each, which will also be touched and remitted.

At the close of the interview attar and pán will be given by the Viceroy to the Raja and by the Under Secretary* to His Highness's attendants.

The ceremonies at the Raja's departure will be the same as those observed at his arrival.

His Highness will be escorted to and from Government House by a party of cavalry consisting of one non-commissioned officer and eight sowars.

A band will play outside during the interview.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up in front of Government House, and will salute His Highness on arrival and departure.

A salute of eleven guns will be fired on the arrival and departure of the Raja.

UNDRESS UNIFORM WILL BE WORN.
