NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

The Lt. Genl has already taken the necessary action vide C. No. 1541. but apparently there are not to be any communications in future between the C.S. & the Lt. Genl. as regards honours Salutes & the parade sent to be contrary to the procedure which has been agreed should be adopted. func

C.S.

I understand that the question had been raised at the necessary action. To make matters quite clear and to be "precedent" sake probably it would be best to say, in lieu of the two paras :-

"The Lt. Secy. to H.E. the Governor will be requested to make the necessary arrangements regarding guards of honour salute cavalry escort &c."

Perhaps C.S. might take H.E.'s instructions today

SECRETARY

My dear Sir,

I enclose you 7 telegrams from M. S. K. from which you will see that Pudukkotta's visit to the Viceroy is now up from the 4th to the 6th. The attention came about in this way: I got a letter from Andrew saying the Rajah had been to him pointing out that before he knew of the Viceroys visit he had invited a party to stop with him for Tricky Races, which are on just at that ^{time} & asking what he c^d pay his visit to the on the 6th. I conveyed his request to the M. S. V. & this wire is his answer, so you see Indukotta's visit for 12.15 on the 7th will have to come out.

Yrs sincerely
P. J. Lawley
