The peti states as follows:-
The peti's father-in-law Subbaraya Raja, now deceased, was receiving from the Taluk treasury at Negapatam the pension granted to him by the Govt. of Madras (Ceylon). He left two sons Venkata Rama swami Raja and a minor Sundara Raja Raja. The former who was the elder concealed from the Govt. the fact of the existence of his minor brother and was receiving after his father's death the entire pension. He died when the family was whole without leaving any issue. His pension was applied for both by his wife Bangaru Subbamma and his brother Sundara Raja, the former of whom succeeded in obtaining it. As Sundara Raja was left without any means of subsistence no one offered to give him a girl in marriage. Subbamma thereupon executed a Registered document (which is not now in the possession of Sundara Raja) to the effect that she would give half of her pension to the peti if she was married to Sundara Raja which was accordingly done. After the peti gave birth to a son and two daughters the above Subbamma began to hate her whereupon she demanded the share of the pension promised to her in the Reg^d document. Soon after this Subbamma succeeded in gaining the confidence of Sundar and having brought him under her influence began to tease the peti in every way. The peti presented a petition to the Coll^r and went away to the Madura Dt. to the house of her relatives. Some 2 years back. The Coll^r has not issued any orders on her petition. The peti is a "gosha" woman. She has no means of livelihood. She prays that orders may issue to the authorities concerned to grant her either the pension named above or a maintenance from the same.
