My dear Lawley,

Herewith proof of the draft order on Banganapalle ceremonial.

He arrives on Tuesday, so we have not much time.

If you can fix the time of the visits will you please make the necessary entries at the places marked. As regards H. E. receiving the Nawab, please see C No. 1645 from Foreign to whom I referred the point. I do not know what the custom has been hitherto.

Mullaly says (CNo.1624) that no deputations go to Government house on the occasion of the return visit but the Nawab's personal escort is sent to guide. H.E's carriage to the Nawab's residence. I do not see myself why a deputation should be dispensed with in this case. The A.D.C. and U. S. go to the Nawab's residence & fetch him and the compliment should be returned. I think the Dewan and the Nawab's eldest son should come to Govt., house.

As regards the deputation the Government of India wishes that when a Native Chief makes a public entry into a British station his departure should be informal- Vide D.O. dated 27th August 1895. The reply to a refce., on the point ~~Forg~~ Foreign has wired that an informal deputations dispenses with all with ceremonial attentions. Both Travancore and Pudukkottai have agreed to an important departure. I have written to Mullaly re-Banganapalle and asked him to wire reply. This my delay the issue of this order. I have however telephoned to you about Banganapalle's arrival and understood you will make the necessary arrangements for the escort at Ry., Station and the permanent escort without waiting for the issue of the order.

Yours Sincerely,

My dear Imullaly,

Please see the enclosed D.O. (Copy of) Contd dated 27th August 1895. By the Secretary of State for India the Government of India desires that when a native chief makes a public entry into a British station, his departure should be informal. This would dispense with the escort of the Bodyguard for conducting a chief to the Railway station. Will you kindly take steps to arrange with the Nawab of Banganapalle & Acade according to the think it wd be as well to get Foreign Office opinion about this.

(3) I dont know abt. disputations.

(4) The only point I can answer is that Full Dress is correct on both occasions.
