GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following papers:—

G.O., dated 23rd November 1894, No. 831, Political.

Abstract.—Considering the accommodation available for ex-King Theebaw at Cannanore unsuitable, and directing the Collectors of Malabar and South Canara to report as to the houses available at Calicut and Mangalore, respectively.

G.O., dated 21st December 1894, Mis. No. 907, Political.

Read—the following letter from H. MOBERLY, Esq., Acting Collector of Malabar, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Camp, Meppádi, 9th December 1894, No. 16, Confidential:—

In reply to G.O., dated 23rd November 1894, No. 831 (received this day) enquiring whether any houses are available at Calicut for the accommodation of ex-King Theebaw and his party, I have the honour to report that all the good houses in Calicut are occupied and that there is not a single house available.

Order—dated 21st December 1894, Mis. No. 907, Political.

Recorded.

Chief Secretary.

G.O., dated 8th January 1895, Mis. Nos. 13, 14, Political.

Read—the following letter from G. W. DANCE, Esq., Acting Collector of South Canara, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Mangalore, 16th December 1894, No. 4305:—

In reply to paragraph 2 of G.O., dated 23rd November 1894, No. 831, Political, I have the honour to state that the best houses in Mangalore are already occupied. There are, however, two bungalows in one compound near my office belonging to one Narasaya Shanbogue, which might do. The larger of the two has been just renovated at some cost. It contains two large bed-rooms and one large sitting-room besides two smaller rooms which might be used as sitting-rooms. The smaller bungalow contains two large rooms. It is at present very dirty, but the owner is willing to clean it up and effect some repairs of which it stands in need. The houses are situated on a raised ground overlooking the sea and would get whatever breeze there is. The two bungalows might be rented for Rs. 100 or Rs. 120 a month.

Order—dated 8th January 1895, Mis. No. 13, Political.

The following telegram will be despatched to the Government of India, Foreign Department.

"8. Your telegram 693 E., eleventh April last. Existing accommodation for ex-King Theebaw and party at best places on West Coast insufficient. If necessary, requisite buildings could be erected."

Ag. Chief Secretary.

Read—also the following paper:—

From H. DALY, Esq., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, the 18th January 1895, No. 163-E.

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your telegram, No. 8, dated the 8th January 1895, regarding the proposed transfer of His Highness the ex-King Theebaw of Burma from Ratnagiri to the Madras Presidency.

2. Your telegram above cited was repeated to the Government of Bombay with a request that proposals might be expedited. The message, however, crossed a letter in which the Bombay Government reported that a reply from the Madras Government to Mr. Lee-Warner's letter, No. 5043, dated the 15th August 1894, was still awaited. I am to express a hope that the joint proposals of the Governments of Madras and Bombay will be submitted at an early date.

3. A copy of my present letter is being forwarded to the Government of Bombay.

Order—dated 31st January 1895, No. 81, Political.

The Government of Bombay will be addressed.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Letter—to

The Secretary to the Government of Bombay.

Sir,

I am directed to invite your attention to the letter from the Government of India, Foreign Department, dated 18th January 1895, No. 163-E., a copy of which has, it is stated, been forwarded to you and in which the Foreign Department requests that the joint proposals of the Governments of Bombay and Madras, as regards the removal of ex-King Theebaw to this Presidency, may be submitted at an early date.

2. From the enclosed copy of a communication from the Collector of Malabar, dated 10th September 1894, No. 8, and from his letter and that of the Collector of South Canara, noted in the margin, copies of which were communicated to you with Mr. Gibson's endorsement, No. 14, of the 8th January 1895, it will be seen that the existing accommodation at the best stations (Cannanore, Calicut and Mangalore) on the West Coast of this Presidency is insufficient for the ex-King and his party and that the requisite buildings will have to be erected if the ex-King is to be removed to any of these places. I am to say that if the transfer is still desired, His Excellency the Governor in Council is prepared to receive the ex-King into this Presidency and would provide such accommodation as would be agreeable to the Government of India at any place which that Government would prefer. Calicut appears to this Government a suitable place if the West Coast is considered necessary as it is sufficiently remote from Burma to render unlikely any intrigues with that country, while by being directly connected by railway with Madras, which has direct steamer communication with Burma, the ex-King would have no difficulty in obtaining the food and other little luxuries from Burma which he may require.

For orders.

The Govt of India letter is not quite clear. It is not known whether that Govt desires the erection of requisite buildings on the West Coast. Perhaps a reference (by telegram) may be made to the Foreign Dept.

It would be better perhaps to telegraph to Bombay asking what further steps that Govt. wishes to be taken

C.S. 22/1/95

I do not see which portfolio the Govt. of Bombay can have to make communication with this Govt — the question seems to be whether willing to accomodate the ex Kings are to be put up on the west Coast or whether this Govt is to select some other place for his detention.

JD
23/11/95

Apparently Bombay awaits an answer from us in reply to Mr. Lee-Warner's letter of Aug. 15. 1894 — and India wants a joint proposal from Madras & Bombay to go up to them. Bombay has only just heard that we have no suitable accommodation on the West Coast. I would therefore send Bombay the papers on the subject — viz. the correspondence with the Collectors. — ~~and tell them that~~ which will be the answer to Mr. Lee Warner's letter. I fail to see how, even when Bombay has got this information, ~~how~~ the business can be furthered. It rests with the Govt. of India to decide whether the move is to be made — & if so where — and how much money is to be spent on providing the necessary accommodation. But I think we may tell Bombay that if the transfer is still desired, we are quite ready to receive King Theebaw into this Residency, and would provide such accommodation as would be agreeable to the Govt. of India, at any place which that Govt. would prefer. Personally I think Calicut would be a good place, if the West Coast is considered necessary, as it is sufficiently remote from Burma, to under any intrigues with that country most unlikely, while by being in direct railway communication with the Madras, which again is in direct Steamer Comn with Burma, the Ex-King would have no difficulty in obtaining the foods & other little luxuries from Burma which he still requires, and which now obtains with great difficulty at Ratnagiri

I think it wd be as well to send a copy of our letter to Bombay to India.

Personally I don't see any reason against the Ex-King's going to Calcutt, if accommodation for him can be found there

Dear Mr. Price.

I have no idea when I started on this business of Sir King. I believe that the Schools of Science revolved so closely, & I came over here to endeavour to come over here to endeavour to expedite matters.

There appears to be some objection on the part of the Chief Commissioner of Burmah to the Ex-King's removal to Madras Town itself, but none to his removal to Cuddalore if suitable quarters can be found there, and I am writing to you quite unofficially to ask you kindly to do what in you lies to expedite the Ex-King's removal to that place. I told them at the Foreign Office here that I should write to you & they offer and I do not think any objection will be offered to such a supposition from Chandoo.

There is direct railway communication between Calicut and Madras and the Zamorin will be able to receive the provisions he is in the habit of procuring from Burmah regularly, and this appears to be one of the points he wishes to make.

I know you are all very busy at this time but if you can expedite matters I am sure you will. As soon as they hear from you here that you are ready to receive the illustrious Guest at such a place arrangements will speedily be made for transferring him I have no doubt. I return to Bombay tomorrow -

I remain
Yours Sincerely
