Senior Rance	The Governor Madras

We beg humbly to remind your Excellency of the kind assurance given on the 22nd October to mention to His Excellency the Viceroy our prayer for provision being made to the children of the great grandsons of His Highness the late Raja Serfoji reduced in number from twenty to six we stand tottering with one step between the fast crumbling stage of our chequered existence and the verge of our graves in preferring our above prayer we aver that we do not aim at any political aspirations for we know we have none all that we seek is our spiritual good. This small mercy will cost nothing pecuniarily to Government and will infuse life and soul into the fast languishing existence of our children.
