dated the 26th November last, I have the honor to report that the Kaudyan Pensioner, Venkatasamy Rajah, says that, he has already sent two of his Children to his nephew, Bangaru Sanny Rajah at Tanjore, and that they are now attending the S. P. G. Middle School there, and requests that arrangements may be made for their education

Raja, etc. who are provided with suitable house accommodation and a sufficient allowance for meals and teacher's fees. He further states that if such arrangements cannot be made, he will send for his Children to Chittoor and educate them here according to the wishes of the Ceylon Government.

Communicated in ^{the} G. O. under reference, provided he is allowed Rs 30 per mensem, as already prayed for by him, instead of
