Praying for final orders on his former petitions.

The petitioner presented a petition to Govt. on 22.6.95 on which Endt. No. 506 of 1st August 95 was issued to say that the petition was transferred to the Govt. Agent Tanjore. The petitioner has not received any final orders on the matter though months have passed away since the above order was passed. The peti fears that his Civil Suit if instituted will become time-barred. If so the Govt will have to be responsible for it. This the peti submits is very unjust. He therefore prays that Govt may send for and examine the records relating to the Govt Agent's enquiry into the affairs of the Kalyana Mahal and issue orders to the peti within a fortnight from this date, stating whether it is prepared to entrust his property to him or not. If such an order is not issued within the specified time the peti is prepared to file a civil Suit the costs which the Govt will have to bear.

* a mistake. The G.O. was issued on a subsequent petition
