There are no petitions from this woman before.

To

His Excellency the Right Honble the Governor in Council of Fort St. George Madras.

The humble petition of Zahra Begum daughter of the late Shahrugh Begum who is herself a daughter of the late Shahzada Shah Yaseen
sultan son of H. H. Tippoo Sultan Sovereign of Mysore.

Most respectfully sheweth

That the petitioner's mother was granted a pension of Rs 264-- from Government. During the lifetime of petitioner's mother, petitioner unfortunately lost her husband, but as her mother was alive, she petitioner and her children were taken care of by her.

That after the death of petitioner's mother, the petitioner had a right to get a pension of Rs 50f but she was favored with a pension of Rs 30f only which being quite inadequate & insufficient to maintain her and her children, she wished she wished to put forth her claims for the increase to her pension, but her brother, the Honble Mir Humayun Jah Bahadur C. I. & prevented her from giving this trouble to Government; saying that he would assist her with an allowance and he accordingly assisted her during his lifetime. Since the death of her honorable brother she is left quite helpless. So the petitioner is now obliged to put in her petition with a strong hope that the benign Government will be graciously pleased to help this poor petitioner with an increase to her pension so that she may pass her old age with respect and honor as her forefathers.

For which act of kindness and generosity the petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.
