Honourable

I beg to acknowledge receipt of G.O. 1830 of 1895 No. 576 and to express my most grateful thanks for the instructions therein given to the Paymaster of Carnatic Stipends to grant me the copies applied for, of which that office has supplied me with 6.

I beg further to state that in consequence of the treatment of my step-son I have been obliged to file a suit in the High Court for my share together with that of my surviving daughter Ammatul Noor Moagaman & Nisa Begum in the Estate of my late husband Shulam Husine Khan Bahadur, great-grandson of Nawab Wallajah of Carnatic, and in order that I might be in a position to prosecute my suit to a successful issue I beg that your honour will be pleased to grant me copies of the undermentioned documents, or to direct the Paymaster to do so as the documents are doubtless available in his office.

(1) Copy of Paymaster's letter of 1891 submitting to Govt report of my late husband Shulam Husine Khan's death & recommending stipends to me, to my daughters, and to my step-son & f.o. thereon.

(2) Copy of f.o. sanctioning payment of Rs 5000 or 7000 in 1865 to her said late husband on the report of the Receiver to his Highness the late Nawab Ghulam Ghouse Khan Bahadur under Act XXX of 1858.

(3) Copy of f.o. sanctioning Rs 10000 to her said late husband Ghulam Haossein Khan Bahadur being arrears of his stipend disbursed to him in August 1868, from the date of his father's death, the 4th April 1862.

I beg to enclose a Currency note of 5 Rupees being copying fee &c.
+ Note No. 7883520 — 15 May 1893.

I wrote the above letter enclosing the abstract to your honour's address on the 21st Decr 1895 and am still awaiting for the copies applied for as they are very urgently required to be produced in the High Court.

I beg to remain,
