3. In consequence of the disputes in the family alluded to in the correspondence forwarded this pension has not been drawn since January last, and every effort made towards an amicable adjustment of the dispute having failed of success. I beg to recommend a division of the pension as follows, and that each individual should be allowed from the period the pension was last drawn to draw his or her portion under a separate receipt.

To,

The Chief Secretary to Government
Fortsch. George.

Sir,

I have the honor to report the demise,
at Vellore, of Carnatic Stipendiary No. 653 Zait-um--visa on the 27th of June 1895. The deceased was in the enjoyment of a monthly stipend of Rs 29 (which was transferred by this office for payment at the North arcot Collectorate) by G. O. No. 194 dated 12th June 1835 as a daughter of the original Stipend-iary Mokhtar Jang Bahadur the late Foujdar of Tinnevely.

(Sptuuni) The stipend enjoyed by the deceased is,
through inadvertence, returned as "should lapse" at page 3 (last name) of G. O. No. 724 dated 26th July 1886 "Political", which ought to have been
"C, as in the case of 487 in appendix E to G. O. No. 359 dated 22nd May 1885, "Political", under the follow-ing reasons:-

on his recommendation directed that the pensions of the family should be drawn on separate receipts. In the division which was then carried out, Zaib-un-nisa Begam sister of Ghulam Bakir Ali Khan and therefore a daughter of the original grantee, Mokhtar Jang, received Rs. 29 as her

Share, vide E.M.O. d/ 13th June 1835. D

3. Zaib-un-nisa Begam, the stipendiary whose death is now reported, was shown by the Paymaster in his list recorded in G.O. No. 724 Polt., d/ 26-7-86 (P) as the widow of Mokhtar Jang and her pension was accordingly treated as one which should lapse on her death. In the correspondence of 1831 and 1835 she is spoken of either as the sister of Ghulam Bakir Ali or as the daughter of the original Mokhtar Jang, vide slips marked D

(B.C.) It will be seen from Col: Baynes's list on page 24 of G.O. No. 327 Polt., d/ 22-5-85 that portion of the original stipend of Mokhtar Jang has been carried down to his grand children. Although it is bad policy to go behind Col: Baynes's list of 1835 in ordinary cases, this is, it is submitted, a special case in which a mistake has evidently been made. The stipend is one of the 1801 class in which continuations to the extent of  $\frac{2}{3}$  are as a rule made.

ORDER. No. 105 d/ 11 Feb 96

It is clear that the entry of "widow" ~~opposite~~ against the name of Zaib-un-nisa in the appendix to G.O. No. 724 Political of 26. July 1886 is a mistake for "sister" and ~~in view of this fact~~ accordingly the Govt. sanctioning the continuance of  $\frac{2}{3}$  of her stipend. The Paymaster will be requested to submit proposals accordingly.
