Sir,

I am directed to forward copy of a telegram received by the Resident in Travancore & C from H. H. the Raja of Cochin offering his heartfelt condolences to Her Majesty the Queen Empress in the loss sustained by Her Majesty in the untimely death of H.R.H. Prince Henry of Battenberg.

2 With reference to para 2 of Lt. Col. Talbot's letter No. 366.I. d 29th Jany 1895, H.E. the Governor in Council does considers that a reply under Her Majesty's and Autograph is not necessary as the message of condolence is not a communication addressed to Her Majesty. An acknowledgment of its receipt by Her Majesty would be sufficient.
