* S.M.F. No. 184 Pol, 8th 27th Feby 1857.

This is an application from Ramachandra Brij, a political pensioner and son of the late Raja Pillai, a pretender to the Zamindari of Goomsur, for the payment of the funeral expenses of his late mother, Rukki Devi, who was also a pensioner. The history of their pensions is given in para: 67 (page 21) of the note in G.O. No. 33 Pol 8th 19th January 1891. Besides the two cases referred to by the collector in which Rs 50 was sanctioned on each occasion, the case of petitioner's father, when Rs 25 were sanctioned, is also a precedent. The amount (Rs 80) claimed by

the petitioner however appears excessive, as only Rs 50 were sanctioned in the case of 1883 even though the petitioner represented that about Rs 100 were spent.

It is very doubtful whether any grant should be made. The precedents quoted by the Collector are not the precedents connected with this family. If Rs 25. sufficed for the father's funeral expenses a smaller amount should meet those of the mother. ~~Any~~ Any grant should, it is submitted, be coupled with the intimation that it will be the last of its kind so far as this family is concerned.

ORDER. N. 125 of 21 Feb 96

C.M. 2-182 Pol.
D 27 Feb 1897.

It is shown that a sum of Rs 25 only was sanctioned for the funeral expenses of Raja Pillai, the petitioner's father, and the fact is no reason why a larger grant should be made in the present case. Payment of Rs 25 to the petitioner is accordingly sanctioned. The collector will intimate to those concerned that this grant will be the last of its kind so far as this family is concerned.
