Pudukkottai Post.

Stating that Government has no remarks to offer on the proposed Pudukkóttai Regulation for assimilating the law relating to Post Offices in that State to the law which is from time to time in force in British India.

Liability of all offenders under the preceding section, but European British subjects to be tried and punished in Pudukkóttai as in British India.

4. Every person liable to punishment under the foregoing section shall be liable to be tried and punished within Pudukkóttai State in the same manner as he would have been liable to be tried and punished if the act had been committed or omitted as aforesaid within British India: provided that a European British subject so liable shall be tried in accordance with the practice affecting the trial of European British subjects for offences committed in Pudukkóttai.

The Post Office Act to equally protect Government and its servants in British India and in the State of Pudukkóttai, and to apply equally to both the territories.

5. The protection accorded to Government and its servants in the discharge of their duty under the Post Office Act of British India shall be equally accorded in the State of Pudukkóttai, and the law of British India for the regulation of Post offices as well as rules and orders having the force of law in British India shall be deemed to apply to the Pudukkóttai State so far as they may be suitable.

G.O., dated 19th December 1893, No. 869, Political.

Abstract.—Communicating to the Political Agent letter from the Postmaster-General forwarding copy of letter from the Government of India sanctioning the proposal made in connection with the amalgamation of the Pudukkóttai Post Offices with the Imperial Post that official correspondence of the State addressed to the Political Agent should be carried free of postage.

Read—also the following paper:—

From J. ANDREW, Esq., Political Agent for Pudukkóttai, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Trichinopoly, 18th June 1894, No. 55-O-931.

Adverting to G.O., dated 19th December 1893, No. 869, Political, on the subject of Pudukkóttai Post Office, I have the honour to inform you that it is proposed to amalgamate the Pudukkóttai Post Offices with the Imperial Post from the 1st July 1894.

2. As the proposed amalgamation will necessitate the introduction into the Pudukkóttai State of the penal provisions of the British Post Office Act XIV of 1866, the Postmaster-General, in a letter under date the 22nd ultimo, suggested to me the necessity of getting a regulation passed for Pudukkóttai State (with certain modifications) on the lines of the Mysore Regulation, No. III of 1894, making applicable to the Pudukkóttai State the penal provisions of the British Post Office Act. After some correspondence it was finally agreed by the Diwan-Regent and the Postmaster-General that a regulation on the lines of the Mysore Regulation, No. III of 1894, should be drafted by the Diwan-Regent. I accordingly now submit a draft regulation received from the Diwan-Regent on the subject and request that you will be good enough to obtain the necessary orders, so that the provisions of the British India Post Office Act XIV of 1866 may be brought into force in the Pudukkóttai State simultaneously with the proposed amalgamation of the Post Office, i.e., from the 1st July 1884. I approve of the draft regulation.

Enclosure.

Regulation of 1894.—A Regulation to make provision for the trial of offences against the Post Office Law in the Pudukkóttai State.

Preamble.

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for the trial of persons other than European British subjects committing within the Pudukkóttai State an offence punishable under the Indian Post Office Act, it is enacted as follows:—

Offenders against the Post Office Act in the Pudukkóttai State liable to be tried and punished in the same manner as they would be tried and punished if the offence were committed in British India.

Every person other than a European British subject who within the Pudukkóttai State commits or omits to do an act which, if committed or omitted to be done by him in British India would render him liable to punishment under the provisions of the Indian Post Office Act XIV of 1866, as amended by subsequent enactments, and of all rules and orders having the force of law issued thereunder by the Government of India, shall be liable to be tried and punished within the Pudukkóttai State in the same manner as he would have been liable to be tried and punished if the act had been committed or omitted within British India.

(Signed) A. SASHIAH SASTRI,
Diwan-Regent.

Order—dated 25th June 1894, No. 437, Political.

The proposed regulation is approved.
