My dear MacCarthy

Will you please take His Excellency's orders on the enclosed letter from H.H. the Maharajah of Travancore. The proceedings accompany by Book post. I gather that H.H. regards the matter is more or less private and so I address you & not the Chief Secretary.

The Jubilee Hall — as the photograph of the Exterior shows — is a very handsome building. The interior also looks remarkably well: the stage has been photographed, whereas a view from there showing the length of the 'building' and the gallery would have been effective.

The inauguration I need not add was full of pomp & circumstance and the assembly en-thusiastic.

Believe me

Yours sincerely

Thomson
