GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following papers :—

From the Political Agent, Banganapalli, dated 15th January 1896, No. 11.
From the Political Agent, Pudukkóttai, dated 17th January 1896, No. 30.
From the Political Agent, Sandúr, dated 21st January 1896, No. 235.

From J. THOMSON, Esq., Resident in Travancore and Cochin, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Trivandrum, 18th March 1896, Ref. on C. No. 417.

I have the honour to forward herewith the annual return for 1895 of the graves of Europeans buried in Travancore and Cochin. It will be seen that this return contains a number of graves in existence prior to 1895, but this was anticipated in paragraph 1 of Mr. Grigg's letter, Ref. on C. No. 468 of the 21st March 1895.

2. Returns are still due from the Roman Catholic Bishop of Trichur and the Anglican Bishop in Travancore and Cochin. It does not appear, however, that these, when received, will show any grave not entered in the list now submitted, which has been prepared from information furnished by the Diwans and some of the ecclesiastical authorities and planting associations. Should any fresh grave be shown in the returns still due, they will be entered in the return for the current year.

3. The following corrections have to be made in the Travancore return printed in G.O., No. 339, Political, dated 24th May 1895 :—

(1) Grave No. 40.—for "Jose Don Caud", read "Jose Doneaud".
(2) ,, ,, 93.—For "George Bennock", read "George Pinnock".
(3) ,, ,, 96.—for "Edward Hamilton Mourdy", read "Edward Hamilton McCurdy".
(4) Graves Nos. 108, 110, 113, 136 and 137—omit, being graves of Eurasians and of no historical or archæological interest.

Order—No. 244, Political, dated 6th April 1896.

The Government of India will be addressed.

2. As from paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 85, dated 5th February 1895, it will be observed that the present returns were directed to be made out for the calendar year 1895, the graves shown in the returns for Pudukkóttai and Sandúr, which were already included in the lists submitted for the previous year, should not have been again entered.
