C. No. 632

C.S.

For orders.

The letter which was replied to in No. 252 Pt. of 11. 4. 96 and that in C. No. 632 are signed by the same person. The Duke of Oporto. So far as I can translate them, the earlier ^{letter} ~~current~~ intimated the Duke assumption of the ~~State~~ government of the "Estado da India" - presumably the Portuguese Settlements in India; the present current states that by a royal mandate (?) the Duke assumed the functions of "^{Fernão} ~~General~~ General" of Portuguese India. The difference is not quite clear but as this former General has been once congratulated perhaps it will suffice to "Record".

Please see ^{however} the second para of the No. emb.

C.S.
13. 5. 96

The para marked in the Madras Standard in the file states that "Signor Nervo Ferreira" the S.S. Fleet has landed in Bombay!
