3. No. 1. is reported to have deserted and disappeared since 1890 and his whereabouts are up to

to this time unknown consequently his Shadi wife Fatah-un-nisa Begam has sent in an application on her and her son Muhammad Niamatullah's behalf praying for a share in the lapsed stipend.

4. Petitioners pray that the same indulgence may be shown to them as was done in the cases of the children of the two brothers of the deceased, i.e., the continuation of Rs 30 amongst them. I have therefore the honor to solicit instructions from Government as regards allotting shares to the son and wife of No. 1 and the amount I should distribute to the family of the deceased. I will submit, on receipt of orders, a list with the usual health and age certificates through the Accountant General, Madras, for the sanction of Government.

I have the honor to be
Sir

your most obedient servant

FOR ORDERS.

The case dealt with in the current is that of an 1801 Carnatic stipend.
It is usual, when this class of pensions is continuable, to continue two-thirds of the stipend. There are however, as pointed out by the Paymaster Carnatic Stipends, previous precedents in the same family for continuing a larger sum.

2. The original grantee, Majid-ud daulah son of Malik-un-nisa Begam, a shadi daughter of the Nawab Wallajah, drew a stipend of Rs.2,000 per mensem. On his death in 1829, Rs.1,566-10-8 was continued in the name of his eldest son, Ghulam Abbas Ali, for the support of the whole family (E.M.C.No.5 dated 20th November 1829). In 1850 it was discovered that this son concealed certain casualties in the family, and the payment to him of the entire stipend was discontinued and their respective shares paid to the different shareholders (G.O.No.261 Political, dated 14th June 1850).

3. When Ghulam Muhammad Muzhar, a nikahi son of Majid-ud-daulah, died in 1872, a sum of Rs.30 out of the allowance

x For an acct. of these, please see para 3 of the letter of April 1896 at p.2. G.O. No 357 P.C. dated 22nd May 1896. (marked with red tape in book file) of Rs.35 which he received in the division of 1850 was continued to his shadi widow Vazir-un-nisa Begam (G.O.No.298 Political, dated 17th July 1873).

4. After the death in 1878, of Ghulam Vali Husain, another nikahi son of Majid-ud-daulah, Rs.25 of his stipend of Rs.35 was continued to his two widows, ^(one has died) a haram and a son (G.O.No.210 dated 20th May 1879 and No.60, dated 16th February 1880).

5. Similarly on the death in 1882 of Ghulam Aminullah, another nikahi son of Majid-ud-daulah, a sum of Rs.30 of his stipend of Rs.35 was continued to his family (G.O. No.554, d/ 23rd December 1882).

6. Again when another nikahi son, Ghulam Vali Husain, died in 1884, a sum of Rs.30 of his stipend of Rs.35 was likewise continued (G.O.No.712, dated 21st October 1884).

7. Ghulam Husain Muse Raza, regarding whose stipend the Paymaster has now addressed Government, is No.96 on page 10 of G.O. No.357 Political, dated 22nd May 1895, where his stipend is shown as continuable. The question is how much of the stipend should be continued to his family and in what proportions.

8. As stated above, the usual rule is to continue two-thirds of the 1801 stipends, but the matter is left to the discretion of Government. In view of the treatment received by other members of the family it seems only fair that that the family of Ghulam Husain Muse Raza should receive a total sum of Rs.30 out of his pension of Rs.35.

9 The Paymaster reports that a shadi son (Ghulam Muhammad) of the deceased has disappeared since 1890, but that his shadi wife has put in a petition on behalf of herself and her son praying for a share in the lapsed stipend. Lord Clive's scale, which is usually followed in the distribution of Carnatic stipends, will be found in G.O. No.778 Political, dated 29th November 1888, and if the wife and son of the shadi son are to receive anything - and there seems to be no reason why they should be left out - the distribution would be as follows:-

Shares of Rs 30.

	shares
4-5-4 — Son of the first shadi son	3 $\frac{1}{3}$
2-2-8 — Widow --do--	1 $\frac{2}{3}$
13-0-0 — Second shadi son	10
7-13-0 — 3 nikahi sons	2 each
1-5-6 — one nikahi daughter	1
1-5-6 — one nikahi widow	1
