This should

2nd March - 96

His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Venlock G.C.S.I., the Governor in Council Fort St. George, Madras.

The humble Memorial of Qadir Muhammad-din Khan Bahadur son of Fatima Begam Sahiba Shadi daughter of Azim-ud-daulah Baha-dur 1st Titular Nawab of the Carnatic.

Most respectfully sheweth,

With due deference and submission your Memorialist respectfully begs to state that, under the circum-stances mentioned herein, your Excellency will be graciously pleased to sanction your Memorialist's humble prayer.

Your Memorialist has two grown up, motherless, grand daughters under his protection and care, for whose marriages at least Rs. 2,000 is wanted to even poorly meet the expenses thereof, and owing to which he has had no peace of mind for a few months past; nor is he in a position to borrow that much from any money lender because, if he does so, he will have to pay monthly Rs 40, at 2 per cent, towards interest and a round sum as well say at least Rs 50 towards principal - he is in receipt of only stipend of Rs 120 per month - then it would be very hard for him to get on with the balance, and thus his after difficulties will become larger enough to make him the worst.

Your Memorialist therefore, thought it advisable to beg your Excellency's special favour in the matter

C. No. 344, 488

FOR ORDERS.

The petitioner, Khadir Muhiud-din Khan Bahadur, a Shadi grandson of His Late Highness Nawab Azim-ud-daulah Bahadur, draws a life pension of Rs 120 under G.O No 679 Poll, D. 22nd Oct 1858. He is desirous of commuting a portion (Rs 20) of his stipend with a view of meeting the marriage expenses of his two grand daughters who are dependent on him. The Paymaster certifies to the petitioner's intention being bona fide, and recommends compliance with his request as a special case. Of the three precedents quoted by the Paymaster two of the commutations were sanctioned for similar purpose, and there appears no objection to the commutation applied for being sanctioned.
The Paymaster at first reported the petitioner's age as 62. This was calculated on the age (54) of the petitioner recorded in the Paymaster's office in 1888. The Paymaster has subsequently submitted a medical certificate which declares the petitioner's age to be by appearance 60 years. If the age be taken at 62 the commutation value would be, as noted by the Paymaster in his first letter, Rs 1423; if at 60 Rs 1530.

The pension is a life pension. The precedents quoted by the Paymaster relate to pensions ~~the pension~~ continuable ~~as~~ the commutation of which is against the rules. The optional commutation of ^{male} pensions above Rs 20. is inadmissible under para 3 of G.O. No 350 Pt. of 5th May 1887 (slip F) and as the pension in the present case exceeds ^{the whole of} that amount, it cannot be commuted. There seems, however, to be no objection to acceding to the Paymaster's suggestion as a special case. The age should, it is submitted, be taken according to the Paymaster's books. The
