READ—again the following papers:—

Extract Minutes of Consultation, No. 100, dated 12th March 1855.

ABSTRACT.—Vesting the Government Agent, Chepāk, with authority to comply with applications from Carnatic stipendiaries for leave of absence or permission to reside and draw their stipends at out-stations, and for this purpose to communicate direct with Collectors or other disbursing officers.

G.O., No. 33, Political, dated 16th January 1860.

ABSTRACT.—Authorizing the Government Agent, Chepāk, to arrange for the transfer and payment of stipends of Carnatic stipendiaries proceeding to reside in stations beyond the limits of the Madras Presidency.

READ—also the following paper:—

From F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 11th May 1896, No. I.B.D.—274.

I have the honour to state that the Treasury officer, Kistna, at the instance of the marginally-noted Masulipatam stipendiaries, has requested me to arrange for the transfer of the payment of their pensions from Masulipatam to Hyderabad (Deccan). I am not aware of any rule under which I can transfer the payment of Political pensions to places beyond the limits of the Madras Presidency. The ruling contained in G.O., No. 33, Political, dated the 16th January 1860, applies to Carnatic stipends only, and not to other classes of Political pensions.

dated the 16th January 1860, applies to Carnatic stipends only, and not to other classes of Political pensions.

2. The practice of this office has been to arrange for such transfers without obtaining the special sanction of Government in each case. But as there is apparently no order in support of this practice, I have thought it desirable to submit the matter to Government for orders for my guidance in the present instance as well as in future similar cases. I would also request that I may be favoured with the orders of Government whether I can authorize the transfer of the payment of a Political pension from one treasury to another in the Madras Presidency without the orders of Government.

3. Pending the receipt of orders, I have deferred the issue of the orders for the transfer of the pensions in the present case and I shall, therefore, be obliged if I am favoured with a very early reply.

ORDER—No. 337, Political, dated 1st June 1896.

The officers marginally noted will be authorized to arrange, in communication with the Accountant-General, for the transfer of the payment of the stipends of Political pensioners who may proceed to reside at stations either within or outside the limits of the Presidency.

2. This authority has already been granted to the Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, as regards Carnatic stipendiaries, in the papers read again above.

FOR ORDERS.

In connection with an application from the Treasury Officer, Kistna, for the transfer of the payment of certain political pensions from Masulipatam to Hyderabad (Deccan), the Acct. Genl. raises the question as to whether a general ruling should not be promulgated authorizing such transfers.

G.O. N^o. 33 Bd^d 16.1.1860 authorized the Joint Agent at Chepauk to arrange, in conj^o with the Office of Account & Audit, for the transfer and the payment of the stipends of Carnatic Stipendiaries proceeding to reside at stations outside the Residency. But as pointed out by the Acct. Genl, this does not apply to other classes of political pensions.

The papers in the file show however, that the transfer of the latter classes of pensions ^{have} ~~were~~ in several cases ^{been} ~~Sanctioned~~ by Govt, e.g., to Persia, Baghdad, Ruttonagiri & Hyderabad.

The Acet. Genl states that it has been the practice of his office to arrange for such transfers without obtaining the special sanction of foot in each case.

He further enquires whether he can authorize the transfer of the payment of a political pension from one treasury to another in the Madras Presidency without the order of foot.

Under G.O. N° 35 Pol d/15.2.86 ^{and all} the Govt Agent, Chapak ~~and all~~ officers in charge of Carnatic Stipendians are given power to grant leave of absence to Carnatic Stipendians for a period not exceeding three years within the limits of the Presidency; and the Acet. Genl is to be advised of the grant of such leave. These provisions were extended to all political pensioners by G.O. N° 872 Pol d/23.9.86.

It is submitted that the provisions of G.O. N° 33 Pol d/16.1.86 may likewise be extended to all ^{classes of} political pensions.

The Acet. Genl asks for very early orders in order to deal with the application referred to above.
