Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, 22nd June 1896.

Madam,

In reply to your Petition dated 21st May 1896, I am directed to refer you to the answer dated 1st November 1894 to your Petition of 28th September 1894 in which you made a similar application.

2. I am further to inform you with reference to the state-ment in paragraph 2 of your Petition under reply, that the rule not to divide a pension was not departed from in the case of Coomaramal Devi. In this case Coomarasawmy Raja's pension devolved on his son: but his 2nd widow Coomarammal Devi whose distressed condition was brought to the notice of the Ceylon Government, was separately and especially granted the compa-ssionate allowance she now draws.

I am, Madam,
Your obedient servant,
(Sd) H. L. Crawford
for Colonial Secretary.

Venkata Pappammal alias Nanammal wife of Muthusami Rajah Vellikkurichchi Muthanandal Madura.
