CURRENT No. 1102

The Chief Secretary to Government,

MADRAS.

SIR,

With reference to Government Endorsement dated 11th June 1896 on the letter from the Government of Ceylon dated 4th June 1896, I have the honour to report that the petitioner Katti Ananthappa naik alias Govindasami naik is stated to be the son of one Katti Kuppusami Naik.
Neither the name of the petitioner nor that of his father appears in the Auditor

General's

General's list of 1871 and the exact reason is not ascertainable.

2. It appears from Government Order No 554 dated 13th November 1879 that the petitioner was in receipt of a monthly pension of Rs 3.00 - 1 and that he received a bonus of Rs 360.10.00 being equal to 10 years purchase.

3. In Government Order No 701 dated 12th October 1894 the Schooling Charges of his son have been sanctioned and they are being paid along with the Schooling Charges of the other Kandyan children.

4. The petitioner is a Copeyist in

in Negapatam Sea Customs Office and earns about Rs 15 per mensem. He is otherwise poor and the food allowance granted for by him for his son and daughter together with Schooling Charges to the latter, may, I think be granted.

5. With regard to petitioner's prayer for marriage allowance I beg to state the petitioner's wife Savundravalliammal is the Grand daughter of Muthusami Raja who was once it is said on the throne of Kandy (vide the Genealogical Table submitted by the petitioner) In Government Order No 590 dated 5th September

1885

1895, a sum of Rs 500 was sanctioned for the marriage of the son of Chayadevi alias Rami amma (wife of D. Ramasami Raja of Vidamanbalam) who is the grand daughter (daughter's daughter) of Veerama Simhala Raja the last deposed ruler of Kandy and the petitioner quotes this grant in support of his present claim. Neither Chayadevi nor Rajendrawalli is pensioner. Beyond the circumstance that the Ceylon Government has been treating the descendants of Veerama Simhala Raja with more liberality than those of Muttusami Raja, I am unable to

to find anything against petitioner's prayer and his request for marriage allowance of Rs 500 may be referred for the orders of the Ceylon Government

6. With regard to petitioner's request for the employment of a ^{private} tutor for his children, I beg to state that at Nekapattam where the petitioner resides there is already a private tutor employed for the sons of Venkatasami Raja. Government Order No.

108.109 dated 10 February 1895 I think the petitioner may easily arrange to make his children join them for private study and a separate tutor need not be appointed.

7. The endorsement under report is herewith returned. I have the honor to be
