SIR,

With reference to Government Endorsement dated 21st April 1896 No 843 on the letter from the Government of Ceylon dated 8th April 1896, I have the honour to report as follows:-
2. It appears from the Copy of a list (found in the Agency Records) of Kandyan pensioners transferred from Vellore to Tanjore in 1883, that a joint pension of Rs 21 was granted to Appachelu and four other members of his family named in the margin, of

1. Rukmanikanta, his wife whom the petitioner's
2. Chinnakannu, his brother (Kusturi Rungappa
3. Chinnamma, his father's sister naik's) Grand father
4. Abboo, his adopted son abboo alias Appu-

-naik, was one.

3. Appachelu died in July 1850 when the remaining four members applied to the Ceylon Government for separate pensions being granted to each of them out of the joint pension of Rs 21 drawn by the deceased.

[Extract from Minutes of Consultation Dated 20th May 1851 No 208]

4. The Resident of Tanjore to whom this petition was referred for report recommended in his letter to Government dated 18th July 1851 that separate — pension pension of Rs 4. 3-2 should be granted to each of the four surviving members including the petitioner's Grand father the above said Abboo.

80 352 Nil
29. 8. 51

5. The order of Government sanctioning the above recommendation is not forthcoming but the papers quoted above show that the petitioner's statement that his Grand father was in receipt of a pension of Rs 4. 3-2 must be correct.

6. Rukmanikanta referred to in para 1 above was classed by the Auditor General of Ceylon in his list of 1871 as a first life pensioner. Supposing therefore the petitioner's Grand father was also a first life — pensioner, the petitioner's father Jagannath Naik would would have been Entitled to $\frac{2}{3}$ of the pension Rs 4.3.2 Enjoyed by Abboo is, Rs 2.10.9 per mensem.

7. Abboo got his pension transferred to Trichinopoly in 1857 and there he died. It is not therefore ascertainable from the Agency Records why his pension was not continued to his son the above said Tapan-nath Nair (petitioner's father). A reference was made to the Collector of Trichinopoly who has replied that no records are forthcoming to shew why petitioner's father failed to inherit a portion of Abboo's pension.

8. In the absence of records or satisfactory information to shew clearly the circumstances under under which a portion of Abboo's pension was not continued to petitioner's father, I am unable to offer any opinion on behalf of the petitioner's present claim.

9. The petitioner is reported to be a Police Constable in Tinnevely District.

10. The Endorsement under report is herewith returned.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant
