Submitted to the Chief Secretary to Government, Political Department, Madras.

2. The case of the petitioner was reported on, in full, in this office Ref. on. Current no. ⁷⁷¹⁰ ^{Revised} of 94, dated 1st September 1894, and disposed of in Ceylon Government's letter dated 2nd October 1894, communicated with Government Order no. 699 Political dated 12th idem.

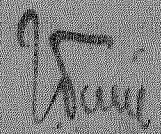

3. The Ceylon Government having ordered the allowance of Alamelu Ammal to be commuted on her death, at 10 years' purchase, and paid to the petitioner, this was accordingly done. What the petitioner now claims is, payment of allowance of Rs. 2 per mensem from 2nd December 1893, on which date Alamelu Ammal died, to 25th October 1894, the date on which he actually received the Commuted pension.

4. The petitioner's application for the grant of Alamelu Ammal's pension was received in June 1894, and after much correspondence, his case

80604-5814-9-94 was reported on in September 1894, and the payment order of the Accountant-General was received in May 1895. The petitioner was immediately called on to receive the money, but he demurred and would not accept it, until 25th October 1895. The petitioner was by the order of the Ceylon Government entitled to Commutation allowance and not to the continuance of the monthly pension, and hence his present claim seems inadmissible.
