Sir,

* Herewith returned.

I have the honor in reply to your Memorandum No. 1633, dated 13th Instant on Current No. 1006 to report as follows:-

2. I have now ascertained that when a revision of the List appended to G.O. No. 27 dated 17th January 1891 "Political" was ordered and made in 1893, I regret to say almost all "Out Station" pensions were inadvertently included amongst those who failed to register their wives' names although it now appears that some of these have actually duly registered their wives' names as in the instance now under reference; viz. Ranna Rao who (although returned in this List) actually registered his wife's name Seetha Bai agreeably to clause (c) Para I of G.O. No. 359 dated 22nd May 1885 "Political". Vide Original letter herewith enclosed for information and favor of return-

3. I find there are a few errors of this sort in the List above referred to, and I respectfully solicit the orders of Government for permission to completely revise again the Lists appended to G.O. No. 150 dated 6th 1896.

18th March 1894 "Political" corrected up to 30th September 1896.

In anticipation of permission applied for above, I have addressed the several District authorities to ascertain and report as to whether barmatic Stipendiaries at out Stations (about 24) have registered the names of their wives before the 1st September 1885 at the offices from which they draw their respective stipends.

C. N^o. 1006.

It is observed that the name of farmatic Stipendiary N^o. 3947 Rama Rao does not appear in appendix B to G. O. N^o. 150 Political, dated 6th March 1894, which purports to contain the names of male farmatic Stipendiaries whose wives will be eligible for compassionate allowances. The Stipendiary is however entered as N^o. 41 in appendix D, part I of the same G. O. which contains the list of Stipendiaries who have failed to register their wives' names agreeably to paragraph 1 (c) of G. O. N^o. 359 Political, dated 22nd May 1885. The Paymaster, farmatic Stipends, is requested to be so good as to explain the statement in the concluding portion of paragraph 1 of his letter, which is at direct variance with the facts mentioned above.
