No 20 on page 9
of P.O. 150 of 3-54

Most respectfully sheweth,

That Memorialist begs to submit the following for your Excellency's benign consideration.

That Memorialist's said mother was in the enjoyment of a monthly stipend of Rs 450 plus House rent allowance, Rs 50. Under whose shelter Memorialist was living so comfortably and peacefully as he never knew what worldly anxieties are. He had in all 18 children, his mother took care of all of them. One half of the number died, now remains 4 sons and 5 daughters. his mother performed the marriages of three of the 5 daughters - Meanwhile she departed for the next world; her stipend was distributed Memorialist was allotted monthly Rs 120; with this stipend he is to live in a rental House and to maintain his large family.
However, he performed the marriage of one of the two unmarried daughters, partly with ancestral property he had and partly from incurring a small debt. Now remains still one daughter unmarried for whose wedding at least Rs. 1000 is required, but the Memorialist is not in a position to meet the requirements of the marriage. Consequently he is labouring under this only anxiety in dolage.

Further Memorialist begs to state that, if he were to borrow Rs 1000 from any money lender, he should have to pay monthly, at least, Rs 20 towards interest - at 2 per cent per mensem - and Rs 20 towards principal. This, if done, would, indeed, cause him severest inconvenience, because the means he lives in, do not permit him to spare more than Rs 20, from his stipend, which he now pays towards his debt amounting to Rs 300.

Under these circumstances Memorialist entreats your Excellency to bless him with the happiness of being relieved from the trouble of mind, by granting commutation of Rs 20 (a portion from his stipend of Rs 120) and thus enabling him to perform the marriage of the last daughter and also to clear the debt, and pass peacefully the remaining days of life. For which act of benevolence and charity he shall as in duty bound ever pray.

The Paymaster Carnatic Stipends, having been addressed on the subject, was, without making reference to its precedents, good enough to endorse "that commutation of a portion of a stipend is not allowed except under very special grounds. His request is therefore inadmissible". Memorialist begs to submit here that on similar grounds similar commutations have been granted to many individuals; he begs to quote a few, out of many, more recent examples:

That Memorialist's own brother Ladir Muhai-din Khan Bahadur was granted commutation of Rs 20 a portion of stipend of Rs 120, for the marriage of his adapted grand daughters.

That Muhammad Shadulla Khan Bahadur, husband of Memorialist's own sister has been granted a commutation of Rs 60 a portion of his stipend of Rs 350 for liquidation of his debts.

Your Excellency's Memorialist

 To, The Chief Secretary to Government
 Fort St. George.

Sir,

With reference to your endorsement No. 1870 dated 17th September 1896 "Political" on petition Current No. 1238 from Ghulam Muhammad Sahib. I have the honor to report that the petitioner refers to the case of his brother disposed of by G.O. No. 321, dated 23rd May 1896 "Political" which being a "Special" one I do not consider he is warranted in quoting as a precedent. As to his reasons for praying to be allowed to commute a portion of his pension, these I have ascertained to be "bona fide".

2. Petitioner is according to the records of this office 58 years old, and should government be pleased to accede to his prayer, he would be entitled to receive a bonus of Rs 1636 in lieu of a portion of Rs 20. out of his stipend of Rs 120 per mensem, as shown below; Subject to a medical examination on the ordinary prospects of his longevity which would be obtained and submitted in due course.

Commutation of Pensions

Political dept:

C. Nos. 1235 & 1343

H. E. the Governor

FOR ORDERS

In the first of the above currents Carnatic stipendiary No. 1311 B Ghulam Muhammad Sahib, who is in receipt of a stipend of Rs. 120 per mensem, prays that he may be allowed to commute Rs. 20 of the same in order to enable him to meet the expenses of the marriage of his still unmarried daughter. The petitioner quotes the case of Qadir Muhi-ud-din, Khan Bahadur, who was, in G.O. No. 321 Political, d/ 23rd May 1896, permitted to commute a similar sum out of a similar pension.

2. The Paymaster to whom the petition was referred, reports in C. No. 1343 that the petitioner's reference to the case of his brother is unwarranted as the latter was a special one and not ~~not~~ intended to be drawn into a precedent. Col: Stewart states, however, that the reasons given by the petitioner for the commutation of his allowance are bonafide.

3. The petitioner is No. 20 in Appendix B on page 9 of G.O. No. 150 Poll., d/ 6th March 1894 and his pension being non-continuable, there is no objection, to should Govt. decide ^{to treat} ~~about~~ the case as a special one, to his commuting as in the case

case of of Qadir Muhi-ud-din up to Rs.20, which is the limit prescribed in para 3
of G.O.No.350, d/ 5th May 1897 for optional
commutation.

4 ^{In case} it is decided to accede to the prayer of the petitioner, the following order is submitted for approval:-

ORDER N: 741924 Act/96.

Ghulam ^{ammiad} ~~Muhi-ud-din~~ will as a special case be permitted to commute Rs.20 of his stipend of Rs.120. The Paymaster will submit through the Acct.
General the usual commutation statement
accompanied by a medical certificate.
