Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, 11th October, 1896

To.....

Sir,

With reference to your letter of 8th September 1896 No. 615, Political Department, forwarding a petition addressed to this Government by Alagiriswami Nayudu, I am directed to state for your information that as the late Alamelu Ammal (Petitioner's Step mother) was a third life pensioner, it was decided- Vide my letter to you of 2nd October 1894- that her pension should be commuted at the same rate at which Pensioners pension was commuted and the commutation paid to Petitioner. The Petitioner having been paid this amount, I am to request you to be so good as to cause him to be informed that his present application is inadmissible and cannot be entertained.
