No. 3534 of 1896

His Excellency the Governor having taken into consideration the Petition of Venkataramasami Nayudu of Negapatam, Dated 22nd Ultimo, has directed that the Petitioner be informed that being a commuted pensioner he can have no further claim upon this Government. The pension paid to his elder brother lapsed at his death and the Petitioner can lay no claim to it. The petitioner's request that his grandson may be maintained and educated at the expense of this Government cannot be entertained as the Grand children of commuted pensioners are not entitled to any allowance for education.
