Sir

I am directed by His Excellency the Governor of Ceylon to forward to you the enclosed petition from Kumaramma Devi, widow of M.M. Kumaraswami Raja, a Kandyan Pensioner, praying that the usual schooling charges and food allowance may be granted to her nephew, Ranganathaswami Raja, whom she has adopted, and to request that you will be so good as to furnish this Government with a report as to whether the case is a deserving one.

2. It appears from the records in this office that the petitioner has two sons whereas in her petition she asserts that she has none.

I am Sir

Your Obedient Servant.

Dewan's Office
Pudukkottai, 16th September 1

To James Andrew Esquire, Political Agent for Pudukkottai

Sir,

With reference to your docket Reference
No. 343.0. Political dated 3rd July 1896, I have the honour to inform you that the following facts were elicited from local Enquiry made at Pulampatti, the residence of the Kandyan pensioner Kumarammal Devi under reference.

(1) Kumarammal Devi is the 2nd wife of H. H. Kumarasami Raja, the adopted son of H. H. Rajadhi Simhala Maharaja who reigned at Kandy. She has no children.

(2) She is now under the protection of her Elder brother Raghavendra Sami Raja and is maintaining his son Ranganada Raja, a boy of about 13 or 14 years of age, who is now reading at Pudukkottai.

(3). The first wife of H. H. Kumar Swami Raja (and not Kumarammal Devi as stated by the Colonial Secretary of Ceylon in the 2nd para of his letter current No. 708) had two children one of whom died long ago at a very early age. The other son named Muthuswami Raja is now residing in Nallikurichi in the Madura District and is now drawing a pension of Rs 50- per mensem from the Ceylon Government.

Kumarammal

Kumarammal Devi is drawing a pension of only Rs25 per mensem from the same Government.

(4) Raghavendra Swami Raja seems to be unable to Educate his son Ranganadha Raja, out of the income he gets from a small extent of lands which he owns in the Village of Danaipur in this Territory. He has to pay arrears of assessment on his lands for several years.

(5). The boy Ranganadha Raja reads and writes with great ease two languages Tamil and Telugu; but he is fit for only the 1st class standard

in

in English. As he is ~~still~~ young Every encouragement should be given for Educating him.

2. The Enclosures received with your docket are herewith returned.

To

The Chief Secretary to Government,

MADRAS.

SIR,

With reference to Government Endorsement No. 1108 dated 1st June 1896 on the letter from the Government of Ceylon dated 19th May 1896, I have the honour to report that Kumaramma Devi has no children; the two sons referred to in para 2 of Ceylon Government letter were the children of the first wife of her husband

in husband Kumarasami Raja.

2. Ranganadasami Raja, a boy of 14, for whom she has applied for food allowance etc. is the son of her brother Raghavendrasami Raja, who is neither a Kandyan pensioner nor a descendant of a Kandyan pensioner, but a man in poor circumstances in the Puduk-kottai State. The boy is under —— petitioner's protection; but no Evidence is forthcoming to shew that She Ever adopted him as mentioned in the Ceylon Government letter. The Dewan of Pudukkottai reports that he is attending to his studies and deserving of Encouragement.

3. In these circumstances, I think it is for the Ceylon Government to decide whether the food allowance etc applied for by Kumaramma Devi on behalf of Ranganadasami Raja should or should not be Granted. She gets a pension of Rs 25 per mensem.

4. The Endorsement under report is herewith returned with its Enclosure and Copy of letter from the

in Dewan of Pudukkottai.
