Submitted to the Chief Secretary to Government, Political Department, Madras.

2. The petitioner is the widow of Anjalu Naik, alias Subbarayalu Naik, who was in receipt of a pension of Rs 10 per mensem on his own behalf and that of his three brothers under the sanction of Government, conveyed in Government order No: 98 dated 16th March 1852. The name of Anjalu Naik was struck off the list of Kandyan Pensioners for having given false evidence in connection with a case of fraud and his pension ceased under Government order No: 438 Political, dated 5th October 1861, 3 years before his death. But, subsequently, it having been represented that his brothers were in no way concerned in the fraud, and had not, therefore, forfeited their claim to their portion of the pension, a sum of Rs 2½ was allowed to each of them (vide — Government order No: 113 dated 15th May 1866). The portion of Anjalu Naik's pension alone lapsed to Government. This, the petitioner now

now claims on behalf of herself and her son

3. The Madura Tahsildar's enquiry shows that the petitioner and her minor son aged about 15, have no means, but are dependents on her brother, and that there is no inclination on the part of the boy to go back to school. The petitioner does not seem, therefore, to be so anxious to solicit assistance from the Ceylon Government towards the schooling charges of the boy, as to seek to have the lapsed pension renewed for her maintenance.

4. The brother of the petitioner who is the individual that supports her family now says that Kumarasami Kaundan was concerned in the same fraud case with Arjalao Naik, and was like him dispossessed of his pension; but his son Kannusami Naik has since obtained a commutation allowance from the Ceylon Government. He therefore prays that the same concession may be granted to his nephew
