DECEMBER.

Revised Lists of Carnatic Stipendiaries.

Stating that the stipends of Lutf-un-nisa Begam and Muhammad Nur-ud-din should be treated as continuable for one more life, and returning to the Paymaster copies of the — that they may be corrected up to the 31st December 1896 and resubmitted in print.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following papers:—

G.O., No. 359, Political, dated 23rd May 1885.
" " 27, " " 17th January 1891.
" " 150, " " 6th March 1894.
" " 622, " " 9th September 1896 (paragraph 3).

Read—also the following paper:—

From Colonel H. S. STEWART, I.S.C., Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Chepâk, 12th November 1896, No. 476.

With reference to paragraph 3 of G.O., No. 622, Political, dated 9th September 1896, I have the honour to submit appendices to G.O., No. 150, Political, dated 6th March 1894, carefully revised up to 30th September 1896.

2. Appendix A, Part I [continuable stipends of 1801] contains five new names, out of which one name (serial No. 47) * was brought in, as the same was inadvertently shown in Appendix B at page 8 instead of in the list of continuable pensions; his stipend in Appendix E to G.O., No. 359, † Political, dated 22nd May 1885, being returned as continuable. The other four names ‡ are those of new pensioners whose stipends were ordered to be returned as continuable for one more life (vide G.O., No. 170, Political, dated 9th March 1896).

† No. 519 on page 12.

300-D Karim-un-nisa Begam ..	15	15	0

3. Two names are added to Part II, Appendix A [continuable 1855 stipends]. Serial No. 8 § was omitted from the lists of 1894, as she was drawing her stipend from Hyderabad ever since its continuation by G.O., No. 499, dated 29th July 1884, as a daughter of the late Munir-ud-daulah. Serial No. 33 is the present Prince of Arcot whose allowance of Rs. 400 per mensem, which he gets in right of his grandmother, was ordered ‖ to be returned as continuable for one more life. There are two other names ¶ in this list (serial Nos. 19 and 34, Lutf-un-nisa Begam and Muhammad Nur-ud-din) who are shown as "should lapse" and "moiety to widow," respectively, in Appendix B  to G.O., No. 357, Political, dated 22nd May 1885, but in the subsequent revised lists of 1891 and 1894 their stipends are returned as "C" [continuable]. Lutf-un-nisa Begam is a daughter of a predeceased son and Muhammad Nur-ud-din a son of a predeceased daughter of Munir-ud-daulah Bahadur; both of them having succeeded to a share on the demise of their grandfather, they are second holders of their respective pensions of Rs. 7; consequently, under the rules that govern the administration of this class of pensioners, their stipends should be continued for one more life as in the case of their cousins, serial Nos. 15 and 39 of the same list. I have the honour, therefore, to leave this question for Government to decide as to the correctness of my views.

4. Appendix A, Part III [perpetual stipends] has been slightly altered. Abdat-ul-qadir died and her share of Rs. 75 reverted to the Prince of Arcot in the title (vide G.O., No. 510, Political, dated 8th August 1896); No. 13, Farhat-un-nisa Begam, having since married, she draws her share of Rs. 13–3–6 per mensem direct from this office instead of through her guardian No. 5, Muhammad Abd-ul-wahhab.

5. Appendix B, Part I [male stipendiaries of 1801 whose widows will be entitled to compassionate allowances] contains an additional name, serial No. 19, Muhammad Qudrat-ulla, who draws his stipend at Hyderabad and has duly registered his wife's name on 9th February 1885. Appendix B, Part II [male stipendiaries of 1855 whose widows will be entitled to compassionate allowances] contains seven additional names, of which serial Nos. 12, 13½, 15, 59 and 69 * draw their stipends from out-stations and have duly registered their wives' names on 28th March 1883, 2nd April 1885, 9th January 1885, 24th April 1885 and 9th December 1882, respectively. Serial Nos. 17 † and 44 † draw their stipends from this office and have duly registered their wives' names on 30th January 1885 and 26th August 1885, respectively. I have added Part III to Appendix B showing separately the names of surviving male stipendiaries from the original number of fifty whose registry was allowed to stand by G.O., No. 385, Political, dated 22nd June 1892; they are thirty-one in number and are carefully inserted in this part, after having been erased from Parts I and II of Appendix B.

	Rs.	A.	P.

4535 Viranna	5	0	0
† 4586 Ghulam Haidar	5	4	0
1310—2-C, Muhammad Varis Ali.	19	11	4

6. Appendix C [conditional stipends] has been slightly corrected, serial Nos. 10 and 14, Amir Ali and Muhammad Nizam-ud-din, are new names to whom the respective conditional allowances were transferred by G.Os., No. 15, dated 14th January 1896, and No. 323, Political, dated 23rd May 1896, respectively.

7. Appendix D, Part I [stipendiaries who failed to register their wives' names] contains twelve new names of stipendiaries who failed to register their wives' names within the prescribed date. This list does not contain the name of any of those whose registry was allowed to stand and who are separately shown in Appendix B, Part III. Appendix D, Part II [unmarried male stipendiaries] contains an additional name (serial No. 9) of an unmarried male stipendiary. Appendix D, Part III, contains only three names of those stipendiaries whose registered wives are dead since the publication of G.O., No. 150, Political, dated 6th March 1894. Of the five old names in this list, the first four are either dead or have commuted their stipends and the fifth or the last name, ‡ who has a wife but failed to register her name in this office, is transferred to its proper heading (vide Appendix D, Part I, serial No. 26).

‡ Muhammad Ali.

Order—No. 866, Political, dated 18th December 1896.

The Government agrees with the Paymaster in considering that the stipends of Lutf-un-nisa Begam and Muhammad Nur-ud-din should be treated as continuable for one more life.

2. Copies of the lists which accompanied the Paymaster's letter will be returned to him with the request that they may be corrected up to the 31st December 1896 and resubmitted in print after being checked carefully in his office.

Revised List of Carnatic Stipendiaries

FOR ORDERS.

With this current the Paymaster submits a revised list of Carnatic Stipendiaries, the preparation of which was sanctioned in para 3 of G.O.No.622, d/ 9th Septr. 1896. The Paymaster's letter has been put into type and marginal notes have also been added in the office to make it ~~clear~~ complete.

2. The only point calling for orders is that raised in para 3 of the Paymaster's letter regarding the stipends of Lutf-un-nisa Begam and Muhammad Nur-ud-din. These two stipendiaries belong to the 1855 class and the rules for the continuance of such stipends are summarized in para 9 of Col: Baynes' letter on page 3 of G.O.No.557, d/ 22nd May 1855. Under these rules a stipend originally granted to a male is continuable for two lapses. Lutf-un-nisa Begam and Muhammad Nur-ud-din derived their stipends from Munir-ud-daulah who was the nikahi son of the Nawab Azim-ud-daulah Bahadur first titular Nawab of the Carnatic. His pension was continued under

G.O. No.499, d/ 29th July 1884. When Col: Baynes prepared his lists in 1885, he treated the stipends ~~continued~~ derived from Munir-ud-daulah's pension as "continuable" except in the cases of the grandson and two grand daughters. Muhammad Nur-ud-din is the grandson in question and Lutf-un-nisa Begam is one of the granddaughters — please see the entries, serial numbers 54-54, on page 31 of G.O.No.357, d/ 22nd May 1885. This seems to have been wrong, for the grandson, and the granddaughters were only second holders. When the list of stipendiaries was revised in 1891, the stipends of Nur-ud-din Husain and Lutf-un-nisa Begam were shewn as continuable, vide Nos. 28 and 29 on page 22 of G.O.No. 27 Poll., d/ 17th January 1891. The original of this order shews that the question of this change in the treatment of the pensions was not raised by the Paymaster at the time. In the 1894 list these stipends were again shewn as continuable, vide Nos. 29 and 30 on page 21 of appendix F to G.O. No.150, d/ 6th March 1894. The point was not noticed by the Paymaster even then. Col: Stewart, in para 3 of his present letter, instances the case of the cousins of Muhammad Nur-ud-din and Lutf-un-nisa Begam "Nos. 15 and 39 of the same list." He apparently refers to part II of appendix A to the current, that is, to stipendiaries Nos. 1313 I Imam-un-nisa Begam and 1313 H Piari Begam each of whom are shown as in receipt of a continuable stipend of Rs.2-3-7. A reference to Nos.35 and 36 in the list on page 19 of the current will show that Piari Begam and Imam-un-nisa Begam are the granddaughters of Akbar-ud-daula Bahadur, another nikahi son of Nawab Azim-ud-daulah. There seems to be very reason for treating the stipends of Lutf-un-nisa Begam and Muhammad Nur-ud-din as continuable and even if a mistake had been made in the alterations carried out in the 1891 and 1894 lists, which is not the case, it is submitted that it is too late to rectify it as these lists have been published and these stipendiaries have been given to understand that their pensions are continuable.

The grandson Nur-u-din is the son of a daughter who died during lifetime of Munir u Dowlah & who was not therefore a holder of the stipend.
The granddaughter Lafu nisa is the daughter of a son who died during lifetime of Munir u Dowlah & who was therefore not a holder of the stipend.

3. It will be seen that the Paymaster's ~~list~~ revised lists show the stipendiaries as they stood on the 30th Septr. 1896. It would be more convenient if the lists were brought up to the end of the year, that is, corrected up to the 31st December 1896 and if this suggestion is approved, the Paymaster will be requested to revise the lists accordingly and resubmit them to Govt. for ~~favour~~ final approval after they have been once again carefully checked throughout in his office.

Simla, the 2nd November 1896.

FOREIGN DEPT. SIR,

Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India has recently enquired whether customs facilities, which in England are generally restricted to very exceptional cases, should be granted to all Indian Chiefs or personages, visiting England, who may be entitled to a salute of more than 10 guns, or should be otherwise regulated.

2. His Lordship has also suggested the institution of regulations requiring that when an Indian Chief, for whom customs facilities are sought, is about to visit Europe, a timely communication should be sent to the India Office stating the route by which the Chief proposes to travel, the time at which he expects to arrive and in particular the terminus at which customs facilities are desired. It would be necessary for such communications to reach the India Office at least a week before the Chief's expected arrival.

3. In the marginally cited letter* to the Bombay Government it was decided that exemption from Indian customs duties when arriving in India by sea should be accorded, as a matter of courtesy, in regard to their personal baggage to all Ruling Chiefs of Feudatory States in India who are entitled to be called His Highness, that is to say, who are in receipt of a salute of 10 or more guns. It might be convenient if the rule to be adopted in England were the same. I am to invite an expression of the opinion of the Governor in Council / His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor on the foregoing suggestions.
